NEEDLE COLUMN

Many persons do not realize the importance of tension in crochet work. The design is made on a beautiful, the lace last longer and the article with which it is used retains its shape much better than when other trimmings are used.

At times it is desirable to produce a filmy, lacy yoke in clay or one of the numerous small designs. In such a case it is desirable to have a paper pattern upon which the work may be tried as it progresses.

be pulled in use and make the work tight or loose, as it should be. The most uniform results are to be had by forming the habit of using the same tension in all kinds of crochet, controlling the looseness of the product by proper choice of thread and hook.

We have seen a pair of slippers made of carpet wavy and the smallest possible hook. A paper pattern was used to get the desired shape. The work was started at the heel, down the side, over the toe, and back again to the heel.

The second debate of the present season will take place at the high school Friday afternoon, Jan. 27, at 8 o'clock. Fennell will uphold the negative side of the question, "Should the Flood Ship Receive the Support of the Public?"

An Eastern Star card party will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Necker.

Mrs. Roy Taylor will entertain the members of the Eastern Star Thimble Club at her home Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 25.

LOCAL MERCHANTS FIND PEOPLE APPRECIATE THEIR EFFORTS TO ENLARGE STOCK; NEW DEPARTMENTS TO BE ADDED IN THE SPRING

Birmingham has outgrown various business methods gradually, until the past few years when the sudden growth of the village has necessitated more advanced and up-to-date methods of satisfying the public, and at the same time maintaining the growing volume of the effort put forth.

All manner of new and modern ideas have been used by the hardware, grocery and business firms that can compete with many found in larger cities.

One of the latest schemes for utilizing space and at the same time giving the people a choice of lines to choose from, has been that of furnishing basement departments.

The C. Arnold Furniture Store has had great success in this line. The department is but a few steps to the basement and Mr. Arnold claims customers do the most business in the department.

It is but a few steps to the basement and Mr. Arnold claims customers do the most business in the department. It is his contention that the line of goods displayed in that department calls for a larger amount of time in selecting it.

Included in the stock is a complete line of dishes, an unusual display of baskets, including clothes baskets, nets of baskets, market and motor baskets, a good assortment of ways and a regular old-fashioned line of earthen crocks of all sizes.

The most recent basement store in addition to the C. Arnold and Garretson Drug Store on North Woodward street, which will be opened to the public the early part of the week.

Mr. Kelsey started in business last summer and owing to the increased trade was compelled to enlarge his stock of drugs and sundries. This was done by using space on the main floor that was to have been used for a line of photographs and records.

Mr. Kelsey is engaged in the line of merchandise, and upon the suggestion that he utilize his basement floor, he has arranged for a recently arranged room has been outfitted with booths for listening to records.

The class of people in the Village appreciate music and they do not, deprive themselves of new records before they will make a trip to Pontiac or Detroit.

ARBOR TEA ROOM OPENED UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

It is the past experience of almost twenty years of supplanting the dining rooms throughout Michigan that gives Mrs. Marguerite Crammer the confidence she possesses concerning the future success of the Arbor Tea Room.

Mrs. Crammer and her family took possession of the building a week after Miss Mary Bosworth failed to make a success of the business and had closed December 15.

Mrs. Crammer will not have a grand opening until later but upon the Arbor Hotel under the name of the Arbor Tea Room Saturday of last week, and is prepared to serve meals to transient trade.

The building is the old Harris home and lends itself beautifully for a tea room and an up-to-date eating place for business people and transients.

Various groups of people who have been meeting in the Arbor Tea Room regularly, such as the Women's Literary Club, the Married People's Club, which enjoyed refreshments there following dances, and similar organizations will resume their meetings there soon.

Also it has seemed many times that the Arbor Hotel would not make a success in the real business people in the vicinity realize the need for such a place in Birmingham.
