

GRAMPS PAINS AND BACKACHE

St. Louis Woman Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Mo.—I was bothered with gramps and pains every month and had backache and had to go to bed as I could not work. My mind was all the time and my whole family always took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for such troubles and they induced me to try it and it has helped me very much. I don't have cramps any more, and I can do my housework all through the month. I recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends for female troubles.—Mrs. D. M. Scott, 1412 Salisbury Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Just think for a moment. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been in use for nearly fifty years. It is prepared from medicinal plants, by the most pharmaceutical skill and superior methods. The ingredients thus combined in the Compound correct the conditions which cause such annoying symptoms as had been troubling Mrs. Scott. The Vegetable Compound exercises a restorative influence of the most desirable character, correcting the trouble in a gentle but efficient manner. This is noted, by the disappearance, one after another, of the disagreeable symptoms.

CHAPTER X—Continued.

"I can't tell you," surprised I said to Alice. Peter said:

"Well, well, all well." Alice confessed. "But it's just Alice's old habit. She's just as nervous as a cat."

"I believe I can make a living there, singing and teaching and generally 'straggling' with life as I can see it."

"Yes, think I do," she answered. "But her eyes, mother. 'I do—in a way,' she added. "That is, I have my singing and the thought of making a success is delightful to me."

"Look, here, Alice," he said, sitting down to the table. "I've got a little bit of news for you."

"I know it," Alice groaned. "And he is one of the most men," she added. "But, of course, he'll never really love me."

"She's not happy?" he questioned quickly.

"She's not unhappy," she told him, with a rebellious smile. "It's just one of those marriages that don't ever get anywhere, and don't ever stop."

"I'll tell you," she said, sitting down to the table. "I've got a little bit of news for you."

"The effect of these plays was to make Cherry long vaguely for the stage, she really did not enjoy them for herself, but they helped her to visualize Eastern cities, lighted streets, restaurants full of lights and happy, beautiful women in gowns."

"One day she had a letter from Alice. It gave her a heart, she hardly knew it. She began to dream of her own home of the warm, sweet little valley whose breezes were like wine."

"She was not for long, for old Alice had a heart, she hardly knew it. She began to dream of her own home of the warm, sweet little valley whose breezes were like wine."

"Beyond the house the mountains rose from the porch. Cherry could look down upon the familiar valley, and the river winding like a ribbon of blue through the meadows, and the far bay, and San Francisco beyond."

For Town or Country—CORDUROY CORDS

The Rut-Proof Tire

Corduroy Cords are all-round tires. In town, their exclusive feature, the eight graduated corrugations moulded in the sidewall of the tire, gives you full protection against curbs, scrapes and other hazards which damage the unprotected sidewall of other tires.

In the country, on unpaved roads, the sidewall corrugations furnish protection against the excessive wear caused by traveling in hard and deep ruts. These corrugations also furnish the necessary purchase to get a car out of a holding rut at will.

Together with an exceptionally broad and heavy tread, this feature gives Corduroy Cords remarkable endurance and comparative freedom from the usual tire troubles.

No matter what kind of driving you do, Corduroy Cords will give you the kind of service you expect.
