Prof. G. W. Swain of Ann Arbor, Mich., will lecture in Birmingham the evening of Jan. 31 at the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Woman's Literary Club of Birmingham. His talk will be on the subject of "Kodaking in Egypt." Prof. Swain is an official photographer for the University of Michigan and has gained great recognition through his work. Press notices wherever he has lectured speak very highly of his work and of the value it is to every audience. It is said to be both entertaining and instructive and pleases a mixed group of people.

One of the attractive events of the present week will be the dancing party this evening to be held at the Franklin hall. The affair will be under the auspices of the Auxiliary Society of the Franklin Cemetery association. The returns will be used to help reduce the debt of the society. Splendid music will be furnished by the B. S. Snappy Five of Pontiac, and dancing will take place from 8:30 until 12. During the evening supper will be served and the committee in charge of that part of the program also acting as chaperones for the guests. Mrs. Ezra Bristol, Mrs. Harvey German, Mrs. Will Milton, Mrs. John Craley and Mrs. Edgar Spicer. The dance committee is composed of the following: Harry Nixon, Bateman Wood, Ed Mason and Bert Beebe.

Social and Personal News

Mrs. J. Bert Peabody of E. Maple avenue, left Birmingham Monday afternoon for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will visit her sister, Miss Cora Peabody. Miss Peabody has been in the west for over a year and will return to Birmingham with her mother in the late spring.

Following an illness of six weeks Mrs. Loreta Rochleau, a resident of Gray Court, is regaining her strength. For several weeks Mrs. Rochleau has been in a Detroit hospital and at times her condition has been very critical. She is now at her home. Relatives report that she is gradually recovering.

ENTERTAINS AT CARDS. Among the interesting social events in Birmingham this past week was the bridge party given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen A. Walters, Charming Cross. The guests enjoyed the game until 11:30 when the hostess was assisted in serving lunch by her nieces, Mrs. Evelyn Savaure, and Miss Mable Bartlett.

"MISS LULU BETT" AT THE SHUBERT-MICHIGAN, DETROIT. "Miss Lulu Bett", which comes with the endorsement of twenty-five weeks on Broadway, will begin a week's engagement at the Shubert-Michigan theatre, Detroit, on Sunday night, Jan. 22nd. The play is Zola's adaptation of her own celebrated novel of the same name and is a comedy in three acts, having for its heroine a new and interesting type of Cinderella, who in return for her "board and keep" juggles the pots and pans in her married sister's kitchen, said kitchen being located in a pink-painted house in the Main Street of a small Middle Western town.

Baldwin Beacon BALDWIN BRIEFS. Another cyclone is expected Friday in the region of the Auditorium when Holly comes to challenge both home teams in a basketball game. Yearlings, who are expected to be a "locomotive" already! Go!

The motion picture show at the high school Monday was well attended and the audience seemed to especially enjoy the program which had been presented by the boys of the O-A-K-A club of Birmingham. These boys are members of the Episcopal church and have a club that has been in existence for several years. The year increasing in interest and activity. In the summer this organization of boys enjoy summer camping trips with their pastor. During the winter the boys have been meeting regularly at the entertainment Monday evening furnished funds to carry out some new plans of the organization.

Birmingham now has a shop that is equipped to do armature winding. In the past that work was sent to Detroit and necessitated several days longer on each job. The Leonard Electric Shop, on West Maple has installed equipment that is complete and up-to-date and Mr. Leonard explained this week that for the first time Birmingham could now handle such work.

The spring of 1922 will mark the seventeenth spring that Mrs. L. E. Rousseau has planned for the millinery trade of Birmingham and she has stocked her little shop on West Maple avenue with new styles to meet the public demand. Mrs. Rousseau has been located in her present place for a number of years and she stated this week that a few of her present customers were among her first seventeen years ago.

ATHLETIC SIDELIGHTS. That Pontiac-Birmingham fracas was a real basketball game. And Tecumseh has a classy team and will give Birmingham a good fight for East Lansing.

TEAMS ROYALLY ENTERTAINED. After the victories of the basketball games, the girls' team entertained themselves at Mrs. Clarke's. Miss Knight ended their good time, for that is the time all good basketball players should be entertained.

BIRMINGHAM WINS AGAIN. Last Friday afternoon Birmingham climbed up another step in the batting, when it received a unanimous decision over Marine City. Our negative team had previously defeated Petalade and this time the affirmative "turned the same trick" demonstrating that we can handle both sides of the question.
