REALTORS HOLD "PEP" MEETING

Discussion on "Selling Birmingham To the Real Estate Board" Proves Lively

TOWN HAS FUTURE

At a well-attended meeting of the Birmingham Real Estate Board in the office of President Howarth on Monday evening, considerable interest was stirred by a discussion, "Selling Birmingham To the Real Estate Board," led by Arthur Starr.

Mention was made of like conditions that existed in Highland Park when the Ford plant was located there—how reactionary and unprogressive "old-timers" endeavored to prevent the growth of the new avenue, paving of streets, extension of water and sewer mains and other improvements that they so strongly opposed.

It was made plain that the element here that hope to live on the "old-time" way, doing things as their grandfathers and great-grandfathers did in times gone by, with an unpopularity of this region as a place in which to live and to bring up their children.

The members of the Board present pledged themselves to do everything possible to overcome the "few difficulties" which are now impeding the progress of the city, and to do this by the using of the best of the progress of events will soon demonstrate the wisdom of keeping Birmingham at the front as a "Village of Homes."

WANT A DUSTLESS STREET? TELL MANAGER STARR

A cost to the individual property owner of about $100 for 50 feet of frontage is the charge made by the Village for placing upon dirt roads a quantity of calcium chloride sufficient to lay the dust for the season in the estimate of Manager Starr.
