

Do the Brides of Yesterday Still Cherish Your Gifts?

This is a serious question just at this time as June weddings call for gifts.

Most of the gifts usually bought quickly fade or are consumed or broken, but that gift of choice furniture lasts for many, many years—often a lifetime.

No home has enough furniture. "Something in furniture" answers every exacting requirement—practical, useful, beautiful, enduring, giving comfort and happiness.

While considering your gifts come to Arnold's and see the many, many lovely things on display. Here you will be able to select a few single pieces to fit out an entire home, beautifully—very easily.

Charles J. Shain has leased the west half of his building on Pierce street to Phillip J. Williams of Detroit, who will open a shoe store there July 1. Mr. Williams was for many years buyer for the P. J. Smith Shoe Company of Detroit.

PERSONALS

Dudley Hayes, 22 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Roy of Ridgedale avenue, who entered the University of Southern California last year as a Junior, has been elected president of the student body of the entire university. Young Hayes, who graduated from Baldwin high school in 1917, spent two years in Ann Arbor, and is now studying business administration. He is well known here, and the honor bestowed upon him by his present classmates, is worthy of mention of the boys who come from Birmingham.

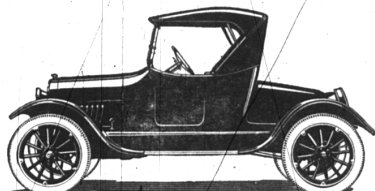

Mrs. Fred Andrus of East Maple avenue, who was injured several weeks ago by an automobile while in Detroit, is recovering at her home. She is able to walk around with the aid of crutches, but will soon be able to discard these, it was learned this week.

The strawberry festival given on the F. S. Ross lawn Thursday evening of this week, under the auspices of the ladies of the First Presbyterian church, proved a huge success. A goodly number of people enjoyed the "eat" and the entertainment proved exceptionally delightful.

T. H. Williamson of Woodland avenue, has returned from a ten-day trip to New York City. Mr. Williamson visited his mother while there. Harold, 7-year-old son, accompanied his father. The trip was made from Buffalo and return by automobile, the balance of the journey being made on the D. & C. boat.

Grover Cook, 20 years old, of Townsend street, who has been employed in Shain's drug store for the past four years, graduated from the Detroit School of Pharmacy Wednesday of this week.

During the past year Mrs. Fred E. Fisher of North Woodward avenue, has been making a collection of heirlooms and antiques. At present she has a most interesting display, some of the pieces dating back more than a hundred years. One of the most distinctive pieces is a very old-fashioned spindle, decorated with old English leather candlesticks. There are chairs, tables and beds of all periods, and some of them claim national characteristics. Several unique lamps also figure in the display and a few handsome old pictures in rosewood frames are still intact. Mrs. Fisher intends to put part of her display on sale immediately, and she will add other articles to it from time to time.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Allen, of Long Lake road, left last Thursday morning for Albion, Michigan, where they will witness the graduation exercises of their daughter, Ruth, who is studying science at the college there. At Albion Mr. and Mrs. Allen will be joined by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Allen, and little daughter, who came from Winchester, Ind., to witness the event, and who will later spend the Summer at the home of their parents.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Birmingham, held Tuesday evening in the Baldwin high school, it was decided to hold the next social at Riverview Park, Detroit, on Monday evening, June 29. At the meeting Tuesday night, Ruth Wall, president of the club, and Georgia Goff, delegates to the State Convention at Flint several weeks ago, made their reports.

The Commencement exercises in the Michigan Agricultural College at Lansing, which are of special interest to Birmingham people this year, because the town will be so well represented by the three young people from here who are graduating there next week, Glenn Voorheis, and Miss Emily McKnight and Alice Voorheis are the three Birmingham graduates.

About seventy-five members from the Sunday school classes of the St. Louis Hancall and Fred Mallerder of the Methodist church, enjoyed a picnic supper at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. King of Rochester, Friday afternoon and evening. The Kings were formerly from Birmingham, and they thoroughly appreciated seeing so many of the hometown people.

Among the graduates this month of various schools and colleges, Miss Mildred Toothacker, a member of the class of '21 of Baldwin high school, will graduate from the Detroit Normal College Thursday of this week.

Miss Catharine Floyd of Pierce street, will return to Birmingham this week for the summer from Columbia, S. C., where she has been attending college.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rosso leave Saturday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peck for Ann Arbor, where they will attend the Commencement exercises at the University. Both Mrs. Rosso and Mrs. Peck are graduates of the University, and they are looking forward to one of the school's greatest commencements.

Mrs. J. Francis Brown and Miss Ida Parmenter of Toronto are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burnett of Southfield avenue. The guests are sisters of Mrs. Burnett and were here for the wedding of her daughter, Minnie, to W. S. McAlpine last week.

The first of the Foreign Missionary Society's "chain" parties was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Parry, on Ferndale avenue, when the local executive board was entertained. The "chain" parties are given for the purpose of increasing the funds for Union colleges in the Orient.
