IMPOSE PENALTY

A plan which, if finally adopted, will create in the village of Birmingham something unique in the annals of American history, is being worked out by the Village Commission and the Board of Supervisors.

Village Taxes

Due July 15

Taxpayers in the Village of Birmingham are notified that the annual Village tax will be due on and after July 15, 1922.

From July 15 to August 15 there will be no penalty attached; from August 15 to September 15 a penalty of one (1) per cent will be charged; after August 15 per cent (4) per cent penalty will be charged.

Taxes must be paid to me at my office in the Village Hall. No money accepted after banking hours.

CHARLES PLUMSTEAD, Village Treasurer.

DEMOCRAT RUNS

Can Postmaster Mitchell run? We would like to see him in the morning when it started to rain all over him. He came jauntily flying down the street waving his hat to all who saw, until he was safe in the dry precincts of the village postoffice. Very truly yours, the Olympian.
