

Complimenting Mrs. Eugene Brooks, who will leave this week for Washington, D. C., where she will make her home, and who will also celebrate her 77th birthday this week, Mrs. Thomas Farmer, whose home is at the corner of Harmon and Woodland, entertained Tuesday. A number of Mrs. Brooks' close friends gave her a cheerful goodbye with birthday congratulations.

PRESENT SCREEN PICTURES OF LOCAL PEOPLE AT I. O. O. F.

"The town pump, the blacksmith shop, the general store and the prettiest girl in town" would be among the scenes "not" by the Hathaway Co., of Boston, Mass., which has been operating in Birmingham this week, had it been in many small villages, but Birmingham has far more interesting scenes that will interest audiences Friday and Saturday evenings of this week at the I. O. O. F. Temple.

Many prominent citizens have been photographed by the Hathaway Company and will have the extreme pleasure of seeing themselves doing stunts on the screen tonight and tomorrow night. The village baker, the banker, the editor and the Chief of Police have all been snapped unawares and have afforded material for "natural" pictures, according to the cameraman. The drinking fountains at the intersection of town have furnished exceptional opportunities and the cameraman has expressed his delight and surprise in seeing various well known citizens struggling with the tall, unruly stream, believing when he arrived that "Birmingham was without water."

"Mamma's little man" was snapped with his mouth wide open, uttering weird sounds and with his fists in his streaming eyes. "Mamma" tried to shield him from public view during his little "squall," but the cameraman took advantage of another good avenue.

Birmingham's most dignified matron was charmingly gowned in her afternoon calling attire and with her head held high was snapped just as she collided with Birmingham's most dignified business man whirling his arms filled with parcels which scattered over the street at the intersection of Woodward and Maple avenues.

The cameraman claims he has enjoyed his work in Birmingham because of the unusual material furnished by the townspeople which, he says, will help to make the entire film an exceptional character. The I. O. O. F. will present part of the program in the form of a feature motion picture. The Hathaway Company will entertain with several additional acts, including one by Madam Ruth, the famous mind reader. Entertainers with the Hathaway Company have been on the Keith vaudeville circuit for a number of years. The public is invited to attend both Friday and Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Doherty of Marietta, Mich., spent the past week with their children in Birmingham: Mrs. W. A. Gibbons, F. G. Doherty and Mrs. Sarah Campbell.

For a few weeks Mrs. Catherine Flinn of Cleveland, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fanning of Henrietta street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorne and family, of Pontiac, are chaperoning a party of business girls at Cass lake for two weeks. The girls attend to their office duties during the day and motor to the lake in the evening. Among the seven girls are the Misses Florence Kitchen and Ethel Westbery of Birmingham.

First Presbyterian Church
Children's Day will be observed in this church next Sunday, June 11. The service will begin promptly at 10:30 a. m. We are asking all members of the church to be in their places in the Sunday school rooms not later than 10:30. Our service will, we believe, be the best we have ever presented. To make it thoroughly successful requires, however, the presence of all members of church and congregation, as well as of the children. Parents and friends of the children are urged to be with us. The annual offering for the Sunday School Mission work of the church will be taken. Remember how very much for the boys and girls of our denomination throughout the United States depends upon your generosity. There will be also as usual on the May an evening service at 7:30. The service lasts just 30 minutes and is helpful. You should come.
