In other words, our so-called state and county taxes are based upon the comparative assessments of property withins and without the village. It therefore follows that these assessments ought to be in proper comparison with the value of the property throughout the township irrespective of whether that property be within the village limits or outside among the farms and the estates. It is a common cryp within the village that we are paying entirely too great a proportion of the state and county taxes in comparison with the real sales value of property, outside county taxes in comparison with the real sales value of property, outside property in the county that is claimed that for winter tax purposes village property is out as well as the control of the village property in such complaints are not by any means confined to village property owners. Many farmers make similar charges.
