DOMESTIC SCIENCE GIRLS' TRIP

Saturday morning, April 20, 11 girls, members of the Invalid Cook bookery class, chartered by their instructor, Miss Loomis, journeyed to Detroit. The object of the trip was to give the girls a better idea of the value and importance of dietetic work and to see how such problems are carried out on a large scale.

The girls were also asked to look for ideas and suggestions that might help them in working out their exhibits. The Ford hospital on Grand Boulevard was the first place visited.

The girls were particularly interested in the diet kitchen, although every section of the hospital was inspected. From there they went to the Hotel Statler, where they were shown through the immense storage rooms, here the girls obtained a very good idea of how cookery is carried out in a large hotel.

The girls were very surprised to find that the employees of the hotel were fed so well. The diet kitchen was very interesting. The girls were shown through the kitchen where the meals were prepared. They saw the chef, the dishwasher and there they had seen the best of the hotel, so handy for the chef, a very fine lad, the kitchen was lovely, so cool, and so clean.
