For the hours of relaxation

When the day's work is done and we want to rest, we must have furniture that is comfortable for the body and beautiful to the eye.

We cannot relax in unpleasant surroundings. It isn't necessary, either, when there are so many pretty pieces of comfortable furniture so inexpensively priced at Arnold's.

There are Arm Rockers, Armchairs, Large Roomy Seates, and Tables in reed, fiber and willow; some plain, some upholstered in pretty cretonne and tapestry; for outdoors and indoors.

And, don't let us forget, COUCH HAMMOCKS and CONVERSATION CHAIR SWINGS to hang on the porch—or one all set up to be put on the lawn. They are beauties upholstered in duck and awning canvas—and O so comfortable!

All are to be found in wondrous display at Arnold's and at such low prices you simply cannot resist owning what you desire.

The principal feature of the regular meeting of the Birmingham Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening was the adoption of the constitution, which was first carefully discussed, by the twenty members in attendance. Plans were made for a "senior picnic" to be held the evening of May 23 at the Corryell farm. Every member is urged to be present as this is the first social event of the organization.

PEOPLES' COLUMN

This column will be devoted to the publishing of letters of general interest to the residents of Birmingham and nearby. All communications must be signed in full by the writer. Letters should preferably be written with typewriter and on one side of paper only.

To The Editor:
Will you be good enough to announce, through your columns, the baseball plans of the American Legion in Birmingham?

For the balance of the season there will be baseball at three o'clock every Sunday afternoon in the Eric subdivision, southwest corner of Woodward and Lincoln avenues. At these games Birmingham residents will be shown not only clean baseball, but good baseball, as only Class A teams are engaged.

A small fee of twenty five cents will be charged to defray the expense of uniforms, balls and other equipment that costs money; and should there be a balance it will be put into the building fund for some day we trust, not far distant we hope, to have our own building.

I would like also, for the American Legion, to thank the Leinbach-Humphrey Company and their representative, Mr. Goldsmith, for allowing us the use of their land, the preparation of the diamond and their cooperation.

Yours very truly,
H. A. O'Dell,
Post Commander.

AT THE GARRICK IN DETROIT

For the second week the Bonstelle Company will offer for the first time in Detroit the comedy drama, "The Broken Wing," by Paul Dickey and Charles Goldard, authors of the "Misleading Lady."

"The Broken Wing" possesses many deft comedy touches and as the action is laid in Mexico the scenic investment will be out of the ordinary. The usual Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday popular matinees will be given. Also it is well to bear in mind that each week's play begins on Monday night and closes on Sunday.

NEW SHOP OPENED

The Birmingham Accessory and Battery Repair Shop has been opened at 207 South Woodward avenue under the management of Ben H. Ives, a resident of Birmingham, whose experience in this line of work is of many years standing. Mr. Ives said this week that with the exclusive agency for the Willard battery and the Kelly-Springfield tires in this territory and a complete equipment for repairing batteries, he was ready to serve the automobile public in an up-to-date manner. Besides a full line of auto accessories which Mr. Ives carries, he has added a gasoline and oil station as a special convenience. For some time Mr. Ives was connected with the repair department of the Birmingham Garage.
