AT THE GARRICK, DETROIT

Miss Jessie Bonstelle will open her thirteenth annual season at the Garrick theater next Monday night, May 8th, offering for the first week the clever Winchell Smith and Victor Mapes comedy, "The Boomerang," as produced by David Belasco.

The Bonstelle Company has become an institution and the public realize that each season they are assured an excellent organization and the best play releases obtainable. Frank Morgan returns as leading man this season. Miss Bonstelle will follow the policy of the past two seasons, alternating as leading woman between the Buffalo and Detroit companies. During her absence the female leads with the Detroit company will be played by Ann Harding, a young girl of a decided blonde type for whom Miss Bonstelle prophesies a brilliant future.

The usual summer policy of popular priced matinees, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, will prevail. Each week's attraction will open on Monday and close on Sunday night.
