

A Gift Worth While

Picture the pleasure and happiness the receiver of a Victrola is going to experience on Christmas morning! As permanent a pleasure as the machine itself. For the outlay, isn't this a wonderful accomplishment.

When in need of mental relaxation the catchy airs of the day satisfy; when in need of spiritual food the inspired voices of the best singers or the fine symphonies of the orchestras answer. Invaluable as an aid in entertaining guests.

Truly the Victrola is a thoughtful and highly appreciated gift.

Make your selection now—a small payment will hold it and we'll deliver Christmas. It's a gift to one that the whole family will enjoy.

Mistakes and a Bank Account

PEOPLE will make mistakes. We can't be right all the time. If we didn't make mistakes, we wouldn't be human.

ONE single mistake or an accident to a person not protected with a savings account in the bank, may cause distress and worry that will take years to correct. Some have found this out much to their sorrow.

A SAVINGS Account stands between you and your mistakes. Open one at the First National Bank tomorrow.

AT THE BALDWIN AUDITORIUM

"The Prisoner of Zenda," which has thrilled thousands who have read the book or seen the play, has been made into a photoplay by Rex Ingram, the man who leaps into the front rank of motion picture directors by his direction of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." The picture, which comes to the Baldwin auditorium next week, is a story of the adventures of Rudolph Rassendyll, a young Englishman who, by the vagaries of fate, was called upon to impersonate the king of the mythical country of Ruritania. Alice Terry, beautiful as a lily, regal in appearance and action, moves charmingly through the love interest of the picture. Beautiful settings, gorgeous costumes and an exceptional cast contribute to make this romance one which will be talked about by all lovers of good pictures.
