Thanksgiving Day Proclamation
BY THE GOVERNOR

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless. His name."
We have come again to the season of the year when, in accordance with the devout custom established by our fathers more than three centuries ago, we formally set apart a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God for all His mercies and blessings.
We have every reason for thankfulness. Our fields and orchards and vineyards have yielded richly of their products. Our people have been sober, industrious and steadfast. Industry and enterprise have translated the varied and unlimited resources of our commonwealth into wealth and happiness for all who have had the initiative and the capacity to do and achieve. While we face a different with the state of the government which has always symbolized the feest that has very ment hieved since the struggle for representative government hieved since the struggle for representative government of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Michigan. I hereby join the President of the United State of Michigan. I hereby join the President of the United State of Michigan. I hereby join the President of the United State of Michigan. I hereby join the President of the United State of Michigan. I hereby join the President of the United State of Michigan. I hereby join the President of the United State.
