Monday, Mrs. Genevieve McCormick of Detroit, spent the day with her aunt, Mrs. Henry Kline of Forest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rollins of Bloomfield, entertained the Evening Bridge Club at a dinner at the Oakland Hills Country Club, Tuesday. The table was very prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn foliage. The rest of the evening was spent with cards.

JOSEPH CROWELL
Joseph Crowell, who is shown above in "character," is the portrayal and "make-up" artist booked for an engagement on the Baldwin high school Lyceum course on Saturday, December 2. His character studies are extremely clever, and many of them are screamingly funny. Mr. Crowell's program includes both humorous and serious numbers, monologues and specialties.

PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN

Nothing is too insignificant to escape the Curious Guy. Nobody can make a Move around this Town but what he sees & wonders why. As a collector for worthless information he has no Rival, and Small Wonder, for he does Guard Duty on the Streets all Day Long.

Listed among the numerous callers at the home of H. M. Schultz of Stanley road, recently, are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pressburger, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barney, Mrs. Julius Duvak and Lillian Shaff, all of Detroit, and Mrs. William Lush of Royal Oak.

At the home of Walter Mason on the Brooks Farm, Wing Lake, last week, among the numerous callers were Mrs. Elizabeth Straw and daughter Oral, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. William Mason and family of West Maple road.

Mrs. Lee White of Brookside Drive, entertained a group of friends at a dinner Thursday evening. Among the who were gathered around the table were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Arthur Payer, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson B. Haug and Mr. and Mrs. C. Billington, all of Detroit.

George W. Cowell of Harrisville, Mich., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weier of Brownell street.

At the home of Mrs. A. H. Wahl of Brown street, Mrs. Charles Lutz of Trenton, has been the house guest for several weeks.

Monday John Holly of Havana, Cuba, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bertam of Detroit, were visitors at the home of their cousin, Mary E. Utter of Townsend street.

There will be story hour at the Baldwin Public Library Saturday morning, starting at 10:30 sharp. All the little children are invited.

The Eastern Star entertainment committee desires to announce that the next party will be held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Bertraw of Frank street. Mrs. Robert N. Rosso will assist her in entertaining.

Mrs. Frances Peck of East Maple avenue, will entertain the O. E. S. Thimble Club at her home Wednesday, Nov. 29. All are invited.

Mrs. Melma Maxson of Chicago, past worthy grand matron of the order of the Eastern Star of Michigan, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vliet of Brown street.

Kathleen VanZandt of Dewey street, spent several days last week at Ypsilanti, as the house guest of Elsie Cobb, who is attending school there. "She was also guest of honor at a dinner given by Marshall Desmond Tuesday evening."

Harry Tice and Dr. Peterson of Oxford, were Birmingham callers, Wednesday. Mr. Tice is a former resident of Birmingham.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Vaxley of East Maple avenue, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Merrill and son, Harvey, of Detroit, and Harold Cooper of Cadillac, Mich.

IN MEMORIAM
In Loving Memory of Clifford C. Blakley
Two years have passed, our hearts still ache,
As time goes on we miss him more.
Our home is quite another place,
Without the smile on his dear face,
His Loving Parents,

Thanksgiving

TURKEY, Cranberries, Pumpkin pie and a host of other good things make the Thanksgiving dinner an enjoyable feast.

GOOD THINGS, however, add to the pleasures of life on ordinary days as well.

FAR-SIGHTED people do not confine their pleasures to special occasions. By systematic financial provision they are able to give each day its share of good things and to prepare for the future as well.
