Weddings

Coppes—Ives

Meager reports coming to Birmingham state that Ben H. Ives of Argos avenue, was married to Miss Elizabeth Coppes of Kankau, Wis., at her home October 24. Nothing could be learned about the details of the wedding. Mr. Ives and his wife are expected home some time next week.

Reynolds—Peck

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthy of Merrill street, Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Esther Reynolds, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Peck, son of Charles Peck of Bates street. The decorations were in yellow and white chrysanthemums and palms and ferns. A very pretty flower was made of palms and ferns, under which the ceremony was performed. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helma Reynolds, while Victor Peck, brother of the groom, was best man. Rev. Thompson performed the nuptial ceremony.

The guests were members of the immediate families and close friends of the bride and groom. A bridal luncheon was served after the ceremony. After returning from a trip to Chicago and other places, Mr. and Mrs. Peck will make their home in Crestview Subdivision.

PERSONALS

A Halloween frolic was enjoyed at an empty house on South Woodward avenue, Monday evening, by the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club and their friends. The usual Halloween decorations were used and Halloween stunts and games indulged in. Refreshments were served.

Among the numerous Halloween festivities, one of the prettiest affairs was a party given by Irving Green, Tuesday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Green of Townsend street. About eighteen guests, classmates and friends of the host, were present. The house was very prettily decorated in orange and black, with the usual Halloween signs and ornaments. A booth for the fortune teller, dancing, games and music furnished the program for the evening. A buffet luncheon was served later in the evening. The party was chaperoned by Misses Saraland, Stickle and Priest.

Dr. Calvin R. Elwood of Menominee, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Elwood of Oakland avenue, this week.

Mrs. H. M. Davock of Dewey street, who was taken to the Harper hospital several weeks ago for an operation for appendicitis, is recovering very nicely. She will be able to return to her home shortly, it is reported.

Among the group of visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett, 1105 Bates street, last week were Mrs. Sarah Cattan and daughter, Maude, of Wixom, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schilling of Detroit.

Among the out-of-town visitors at the home of Mrs. Seymour Blakely, of Lincoln avenue, Sunday, were Mrs. L. E. Leves and son, Frederick, of Pontiac.

The spacious parlors of the local Methodist church were filled to capacity Thursday evening when the congregation tendered a formal welcome to the new pastor, Rev. Julian West and family. After social corollaries and favors were used, hour H. B. Clement called the meeting to order and introduced the following program: prayer led by Mr. Staley; violin solo by Miss Nelson; address of welcome to the pastor and family by Rev. Thompson, response by Rev. West; and a recitation by Mr. Halley. After the program coffee and doughnuts were served by the ladies of the church. Rev. West is drawing large audiences to the church services and is making a fine impression upon the congregation as a preacher and the outlook for the church year is very encouraging, it is said.

Smallest of hosts for the past week was little Glenn Arthur Manson who celebrated his second birthday with a party at his home on Pierce street Sunday afternoon. Halloween decorations and favors were used. Among the guests were Dorothy Jardine, Jane Manson, Donald Gackler, and Everett Jahnson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt, of Pierce street, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunt and their daughter, Katherine, are motoring to Tampa, Florida, where they will spend the winter. They will go via Washington, D. C., and will visit other points of interest while en route.

Among the out-of-town visitors at the home of W. A. Barrow, of the 15 Mile road, last week were Mr. Charles Meets, of New York, and his daughter, Mrs. Beulah Meets, and granddaughter, Marie, of Detroit.

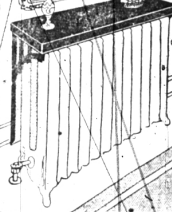

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Barnum school will hold a regular monthly meeting at the school-house Thursday evening, November 9. Miss Knapp, who is chairman of Detroit's well known, an interesting talk on children's books. Mrs. R. B. Hewitt of Oakland avenue will speak on the milk question and how she found it in the local schools last year. Everybody is asked to come and bring one or more friends.

Miss Virginia Ham of West Maple avenue, spent Saturday in Detroit.
