meet to buy in the same mar-ket places. Gold and silver supply the language of com-merce, which, in one form or another, is understood by all.

A folder on gold and silver, which we now have ready for distribution, indicates the powerful influence of gold discoveries on the whole development of the nation.

The subject is closely allied with that of banking, which has a prominent place both in national, community and per-sonal growth and prosperity.

The actual value of a bank account here is that of a convenient method of handling finances. Our service influences and assists the greater development of the individuals and enterprises we serve.
