Mr. and Mrs. Lee White and children, Elizabeth and Stoddard, returned to Ann Arbor this week, where Mr. White and Stoddard are attending the annual meeting of the University Press Club, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. On Saturday the family will attend the Michigan-Illinois game.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood, of Detroit, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tuggey, of Pleasant avenue, Sunday.

At Highland Park, Mrs. Jennie Werten, of Southfield avenue, is the guest of Mrs. Albertson, this week. Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Lee White and family, of Brookside avenue, was Mrs. Charles Baker, of Bay City.

William T. Sheil, of Brookside Drive, is spending several days this week in Grand Rapids, Lansing and Saginaw.

The Baptist Sunday School will have a Halloween Masquerade Party at the church, corner Bates and Willett streets, Tuesday, Oct. 31.

The Adams Unit of the Parents-Teachers' Association have postponed their next meeting from Nov. 2 to Nov. 9.

Miss Paula Yates, of Flint, who has been visiting Miss Lella Shattuck, of North Woodward avenue, for a week or more, left Tuesday afternoon to return to her home.

The Pride of Oakland Lodge of Rebekahs will have a special meeting Thursday, October 26, for the initiation of candidates.

James W. McKnight, of the University of Michigan, was a week end visitor at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. C. McKnight, returning to the University Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. McKnight's daughter, Mrs. H. C. Rafter, of East Lansing, is also spending the week with them.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Houghton, of Mont-Barr avenue, Detroit, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, Thursday, Oct. 19, when their daughter, Florence Wilder, was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Theodore Brown, of Birmingham. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Brown, sister of the groom, while Mr. Harold Houghton, brother of the bride, was the best man. Rev. Thomas J. Edwards, of Birmingham, performed the ceremony. Yellow and white chrysanthemums, which were used for the decorations throughout the house, formed a canopy under which the ceremony was performed. A wedding luncheon was served to the guests by the relatives and immediate friends of the bridal pair. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be at home to their friends after Nov. 15 at 1929 Blaine avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Albert E. Peters and daughter, Marion, drove to Albion last week end to visit their son and brother, Albert Jr., who is attending school there.
