FROM THE ECCENTRIC COLUMNS

Forty-Four Years Ago
That Tom Nelson dug up a bill and found only forty-four years ago.

We forgot to mention the neat and improved appearance of the Rochester Cream, cake, etc., to their hearts' content.

The brakeman who stands on his head from one switch to the other when passing through Birmingham, is exciting wonderful curiosity.

Last week, Saturday, M. K. Tabor gave his Sunday School class a kind of home picnic, refreshing them with ice cream, cake, etc., to their hearts' content.

W. H. Marvin, the wide-awake editor of the Utica Sentinel, paid us a flying visit last week.

Bigelow and Whitehead have just received a choice lot of sugar cured hams.

Twenty-Five Years Ago
School began.

The Misses Lucy and Jennie Stewart of Detroit, visited Mary E. Utter, Monday last.

A woman prowling round the town accompanied by a double-barreled shotgun loaded to the muzzle.

The pony ride feature at Belle Isle park is rather on the bum, judging from the experience we passed through on Kelly Day last week.

No need of going off Maple avenue for bargains in merchandise in our midst.

The Detroit and Pontiac Electric Ry. are straightening their tracks.

Who Pays the Bill?
A few hundred feet below the surface of the earth there are countless millions of people who depend upon part of their fellowmen to furnish them with this coal that they may be supplied with heat and power.

Contract for pavements to be laid this year by the city of Royal Oak was awarded to the lowest bidder.

After a gradual decline due to the infirmities of years, Edward L. Shipp passed away.
