CIVIC PRIDE

Have the citizens of Birmingham any civic pride? All of them admit that Birmingham is one of the prettiest villages in Michigan, if not actually the prettiest. But this bragging about our town does not constitute civic pride.

Civic pride is the spirit that gets out and works to make the town cleaner, prettier and better in every way. It is the spirit that picks up paper off the streets, and refrains from throwing it down, that builds attractive garages and other out-buildings at the corner of the street.

OUR SCHOOLS
From all parts of the United States, from one source or another, comes the cry that our schools are not efficient, are not giving the children instruction that will fit them for life.

Costly floral offerings from county officials adorned the coffin of Albert Richey, the most just man of Michigan, who was buried at Muskegon. He had spent much of his time in recent years in the county jail for drunkenness and while there had made fast friends of the sheriff and deputies.

Heavy fines, imposed as high as $70, are being imposed on Flint bus drivers convicted of speeding. Justice Tamm, in whose court the cases are heard, has resorted to this method of curbing the practice of speeding on the coast.

Royal Oak schools opened last week with a registration of 2,950, approximately 200 more than the highest previous registration mark.

One was shot, O so badly, that he frightened the rest into flight. One man dead and another wounded. Four acres of corn in making their escape.

Twenty-Five Years Ago
Get your skates on. The Royal Oak people were awakened last Saturday evening by the shrill strains of music coming from somewhere. They thought it was a dream as it is a strange thing to hear a band in that quiet village.

George W. Brayman in his garden near his home has a growth of Hubbard squashes that would make California grown squash green with envy. One old buster measured 47 inches long, one weighed 12 pounds, and a few such were in line and enjoyed the ceremonies very much.

PRESS PICKINGS
Michigan's grape crop will be sold at a price lower than last, as a result of the war between growers and shippers in western Michigan.

Before the Special Election
The special election for the County of Oakland, Michigan, will be held on Tuesday, September 19, 1922.

GO TO THE STATE FAIR
Barkers Bark A and Crows
Circus Exhibits And
Sideshow Galore
From the little towns and big cities off on the edge of Michigan, the fairgoers, from the farms, from the suburbs, came the crowds to the fair, Ma, Pa and the kids. The three who wandered over to the circus-on-the-creek, came in their new flivver and hobnobbed socially with the Stutzmeisters who came from the city.

W. H. CRYEBAUM, County Clerk.
