HORSE DIES OF HEAT EXHAUSTION HERE LAST WEEK
Efforts To Revive Him Fail; Buried With Proper Obsequies By Villagers

Yes, it was hot last week as any one will testify. If they had any walking to do along the village streets.

While Joe Goldberg of Trowbridge avenue, Detroit, was slowly sending his way along Woodward avenue last Friday at 3 p.m. with his two-horse drawn truck, one of the animals was overcome by the heat. It dropped to the pavement, exhausted. Officer Stokes rushed up on his motorcycle, but the combined efforts of Stokes and Goldberg failed to revive the horse, which passed away about 6 p.m., according to Officer Stokes.

It is reported that John Weber, local truckman, carried the animal to its final resting place and "Mike" Groves, "Stan" Anderson and "The Sals" that the hearse was buried with fitting honors.

MRS. GORDON BAILEY ESCAPES INJURY IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Gordon Bailey of Park street, while driving on Worth street, Sunday evening, narrowly escaped injury when the car ran into a deep hole where the earth had settled after the rain. The car was left in the hole over night before the Village Commissioners viewed it next morning. Neither Mrs. Bailey nor her child, who was with her in the car, were hurt. It is not yet known who will pay for the damages to the car.

According to J. H. McBride, village president, the village is not directly responsible for the accident as the hole was at the side of the road and Mrs. Bailey had just been learning to drive the car.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE BALDWIN

In addition to being an advanced geographical lexicon, Dodo also entertains with songs and dances. The Saturday and Sunday bills are up to the minute, including "The Five Dollar Baby" and "The Light That Failed."

GIVE TEACHERS DINNER

There will be a dinner for the school teachers in the cafeteria of the Baldwin high school this evening. The school board is tendering the dinner, which is an annual affair, for the purpose of giving the teachers an opportunity to get acquainted. There will be no formal program but the president of the board will probably give an address followed by a response from the teachers. There are now 18 instructors in the schools.
