First Presbyterian

We are not going along on the memory of last Sunday though it was a great day, but want to establish some of the ideals created by the men who spoke to us. So plan to start right away and get into the running or you will get left behind. At 10:30 Sunday morning there will be baptism of children. The pastor will give of course preaching and will have as the subject of his sermon "What Is Christian Home?" The Sunday school will meet at noon. The children are coming back rapidly now so get all teachers in their own homes. The Rally Day service the following week. Evening service at 7:30. A service of fine gospel singing and good gospel preaching which you will enjoy. Sermon subject, "The Revival We Need." Please remember that our first Communion service will be held Sunday evening, October 1st. Reception of new members in connection with R. To all gatherings of this church a cordial welcome for all. Remember it is "The Church of the Friendly Handshake."

The Birmingham High School Alumni Association is planning to put on a series of shows at the high school auditorium and plans to have them well attended. For its first year the organization is on a very solid basis. Remember we are still a young organization. Watch Us, they say.

PERSONALS

Last Sunday at the Presbyterian church, Rev. John Steele of Pittsburgh, spoke to a large audience regarding to them the importance of the Christian home in the matter of raising children, charging tobacco and liquor into the two chief factors in the matter of juvenile delinquency. Rev. Steele represents the Presbyterian Board of Temperance and Moral Reform and has been attending the Synod of Michigan in Detroit, and the people in Birmingham were very much pleased to hear such a sermon in their own church.

Sunday evening, Rev. Harold M. Johnson of Philadelphia, Secretary of the Board of Presbyterian School Work, delivered an immensely interesting lecture on week day religious education, at the Presbyterian church here. He tried to implant in our present that the truth of the Bible should be taught at home during the week. The service Sunday is a union service, all churches feel that the matter of religious education is essential to Birmingham.

A very pretty wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party after the wedding of Miss Rose Braun and Thomas B. Hayes, which took place at noon on Thursday at St. Joseph's in Detroit, at the home of the bride's mother, Joseph Braun, at 1704 N. 12th. Blue and yellow chandeliers and dabbles formed the attractive centerpiece for the daintily decorated table around which were seated the guests, numbering forty. The young couple left shortly after the end of their honeymoon and do not expect to return for some time.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Northey, who have just returned from an extended trip abroad, are visiting at the home of R. F. Brooks on North Woodward avenue, for a few weeks when they will continue their journey to California, where they expect to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Booth were last and supper at a very attractive buffet supper, Saturday, to guests within the family circle among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Booth, who have just returned from a trip abroad, and Mr. Boscoe of Chicago. Margot and her party formed the attractive table centerpiece and were used as the basis for the decorations.

Rev. McCurdy announces that the St. James Episcopal Church school will start classes on the first Sunday in October.

Rev. C. H. McCurdy of St. James Episcopal church, will attend a conference of the clergyman of the diocese at Elm Lake, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

There are many Birmingham boys registering at the University of Michigan this year among whom are McKnight, Norman Schlaack and Hyde (Boyd) as freshmen, Thomas Williamson, Thomas Thurber and Mortimer Nott.

Theatres

PARAMOUNT LIKED HERE

The Temple Theatre shows are becoming increasingly popular since the advent of Paramount programs. The average picture is better and incidentally has a greater drawing power. This week's program: "Law and the Woman," "The Three Live Ghosts" and "Youthful Fancy" should prove to the citizens of Birmingham that the local picture show is worth supporting. The Temple has been somewhat handicapped in its advertising because of the failure of its press notices to arrive on time, hence it has not always been possible to announce the stars in each production.

PERSONALS

Bernard DeLong of Greenwood avenue, left Sunday for a short trip to the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. The trip will be made by automobile.
