Winthrop Tapered Asphalt Shingles

Picture these shingles in non-fading red, sea green, blue, black. Imagine what a beautiful roof they make—in solid colors or in combinations.

Then remember that the tapered shingle is due to heavy being built up of extra coats of peeling asphalt. The taper doubles the thickness of the exposed portion of your roof and but slightly increases the weight.

It is no wonder fifteen years of weather fail to harm a roof of Winthrop's made in Michigan for Michigan weather.

LEGENDS TOLD OF HARMES

In Mythology It is Related That They Swapped Down and Despoiled the Table of Aeneas

Harmes were celebrated in many ancient tales as a race of monsters that infested certain shores. They were usually represented as having a woman's head and the lower part of the body and limbs of a winged, tail, legs and claws, says the Detroit News.

It is related that these Harmes once stole the table of Aeneas and fled with it to their island and carried away the food from the table before they had even attacked the men themselves.

The men then sprang themselves with swords and spears and waited for the next approach of the harmes, intending to kill them when they came back. But the cunning monster slipped all their efforts as before. When the expedition left the island the leader of the harmes looked himself upon a rock overlooking the coast and in a hoarse voice yelled Aeneas and his companions with curses and execrations.

A Bank in Paris. Every business decision is one peculiar kind of happiness. In one of the banks the chief of a firm clerk in the accounting department enters a card and says: 'I just wanted to inform you that your account is in arrears with Paris.' There was a long pause and then an excited feminine voice inquired: 'Could I do you have in Paris this morning?' - Vancouver Telegram.
