

A Smile for Readers of the Eccentric

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Sughrue
© Walter Thompson Union

TOWN PESTS

AW, WHAT'S THE USE

By L. F. Van Zelm
© Walter Newspaper Union

Ain't That the Cat's Meow, Though!

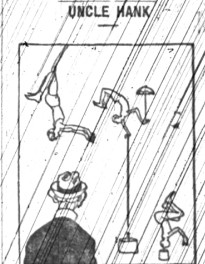

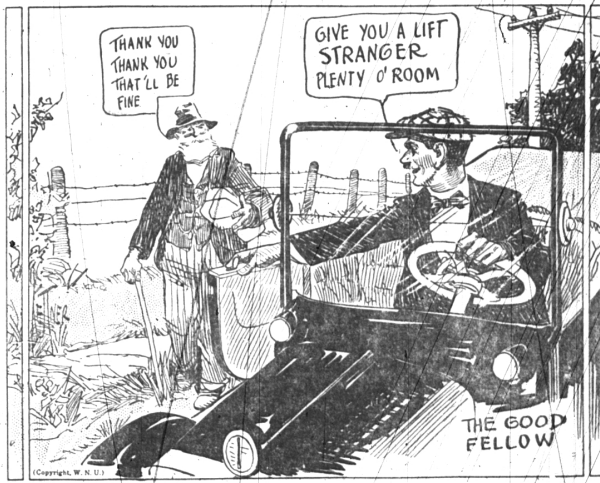

The State-Jobs Post still gets a Cackle out of the Time when you look your Pocketbook, but at you know Starting on your Hopesroom three years ago and never failed to mention it. "A Good Job Never Done" is the Motto, and his Parents Whom he Wear Whiskers.

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

MISS LUCKY AX ME EP AN LAKS SUMMER-TIME, ER WINTON-TIME BE BES' BUT ALL AN GOT T' SAY, AN LAKS T' FISH A HEAP MO BETTUM AN LAKS T' CHOP WOOD!

Big Events in the Lives of Little Men

On the Concrete

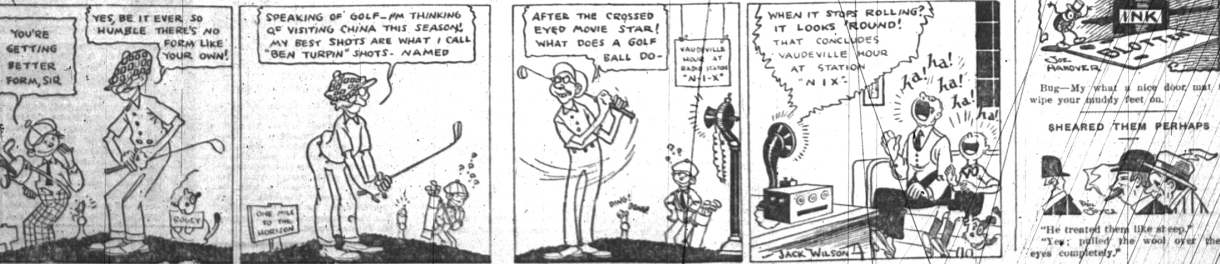

Sometimes I look outdoors at night And weave a net of pale star-beams, And then go flying through the dark To catch the other peoples dreams.

The Clancy Kids
Silence Is Golden Because the Voice "Carries"
By PERCY L. CROSBY
Copyright by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

RADIO RALF AND HIS FRIENDS--

By JACK WILSON
Copyright 1931 by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

KEEP FOR USE

"A woman having given a reason for what she does."
"No, she keeps it for future use."
A POOR MEMORY
"Here—What's all this up in a kink for?"
"Worm—Got to remember something for kink."
Much From Little.
It is claimed for the hundred of millions of people of America what produced it, namely, by the United States and Canada, that all originated from a single grain planted by a woman in Ottawa in 1860.