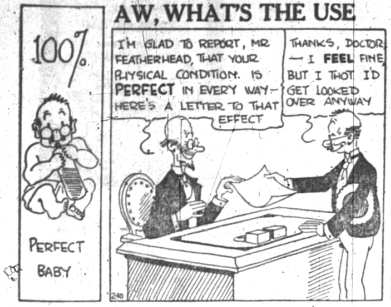
A Smile for Readers of the Eccentric

AW, WHAT'S THE USE

By L. F. Van Zelm
© Wesson Newspaper Union



What's the Use of It Anyway?

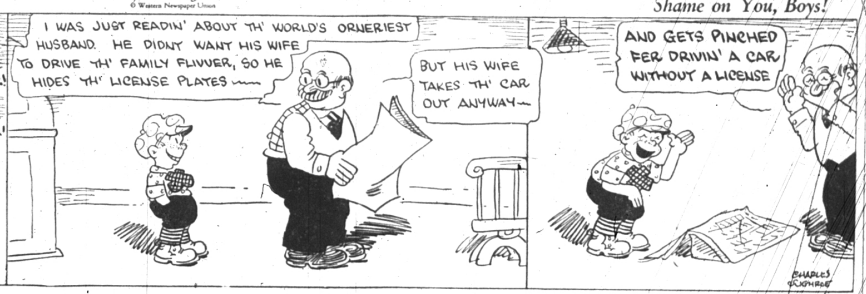
TOWN PESTS

The Gent or Lassie who has Nothing to Do and Always Does It at Wesson Newspaper Office to Do It is our Idea of a Perfect Pest. Young and Fetter who will Enter a Hard Working Editor's Office and Get No Heat and Have Him Read Limericks in the Manner Pictured Here.

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Sughroe
© Wesson Newspaper Union

Shame on You, Boys!

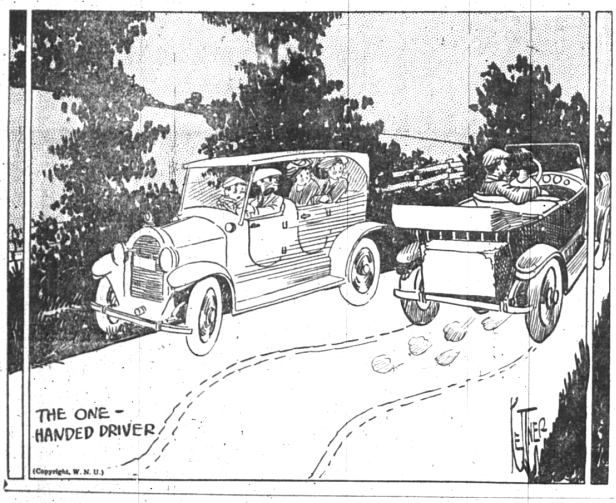


HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

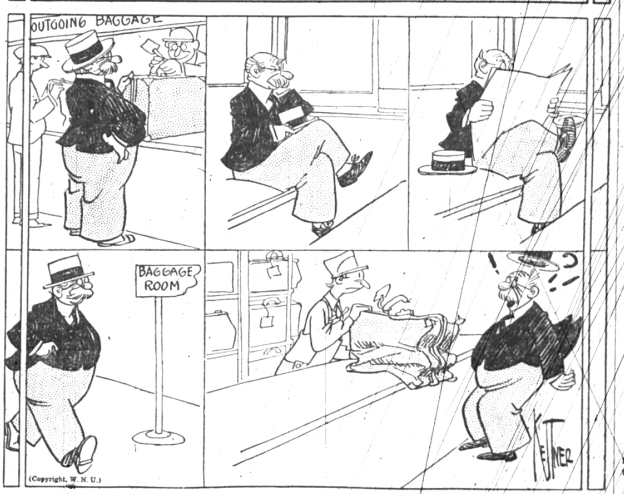
AH TOL' KUNL BOB, AN' JES' THIRTY-FO' YEAH OLE, BUT HE LOW DEY CAIN' NO NIGGUH IN DE WORL EVUH GIT EZ UGLY EZ AH IS IN DAT SHAWT A TIME!!

Copyright 1923 by McClure Newspaper Syndicate

On the Concrete



Our Pet Peeve



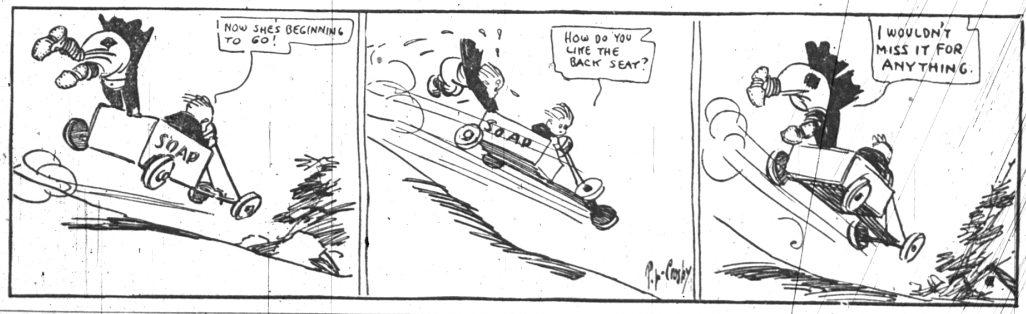
UNCLE HANK

Some fellers could keep the wolf from their door by hanging their photograph on the door knob.

THE CLANCY KIDS

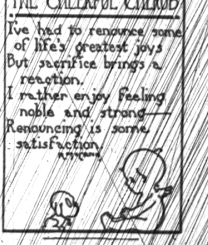
We Believe It

By PERCY L. CROSBY
© by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate



THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I've had to renounce some of life's greatest joys
But sacrifice brings a reaction.
I rather enjoy feeling noble and strong—
Renouncing is some satisfaction.



RADIO RALF AND HIS FRIENDS

By JACK WILSON
Copyright 1923 by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

THE WIFELY WAY.

I attended George dreadfully.
Have you made up?
Oh, yes; I succeeded in getting him to ask my pardon.

WHAT HE NEEDED MOST.

De lady in de next house give me a piece of home-made cake. Won't you give me somethin' too?
Certainly! I'll get you a pepsin tablet.

TERRIFIC COMBAT

"What is that terrific combat?"
"A bargain struggle for marked down millinery."
"I get you. Fighting at the drop of a hat."