

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Harrington, of Monroe, Michigan, will arrive tomorrow morning to be the guests of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Yeats, of Cranbrook Road.

About twenty close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Leitch surprised them with an impromptu home warmer in their new home on Dorchester Road Monday evening. The new home was inspected and greatly approved by the guests. Mrs. Lynch served her guests a delightful lunch during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Porritt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Huston, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van Eperdy were the dinner guests Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKinney, of Brown street, the house was prettily decorated in holly and evergreen boughs. The evening was spent at bridge.

Through the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wasey, Dorchester Road, and family, will be in Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. Wasey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robert. They will leave this evening and will return about January 4.

A family dinner on Christmas will mark the opening of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biggers' new home on Quardon Road. They had formerly made their home with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Biggers, of Wing Lake. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Biggers will close their Wing Lake home and will be at the Hotel Statler until about the fifteenth of January when they will go to Miami for the remainder of the winter.

No parties have been arranged at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club for Christmas but it has been planned to have a New Year's party, this one to be more delightful and to far surpass the one held last year.

The Linden Grove and Hickory Schools will unite their Christmas entertainments tonight which will be held in the new Linden School. A play will be presented for the parents of the children, given under the direction of Mrs. Moeltz and Miss Gilmore, teachers in the schools.

Make Your Appointments for the Holidays Early
EVENINGS BY APPOINTMENT
Lewis Beauty Shop
Woodward at West Maple
Telephone—SIX-SEVENTEEN

Toys!! Toys!!
1/3 off

BEING over supplied, we have arranged a section of our store into a veritable Par-land of Toys whose magic curtain will open to you until after Christmas, at a discount of 33 1/3 per cent. To this event, we cordially invite all Birmingham parents and their children. Come early and stay as long as you like.

Scores of wondrous Toy values will greet you
Hardware House of McBride
Phone 535 - Birmingham, Mich.

ANNOUNCING
THE OPENING OF
The Field Furniture Shop
Field Building—Second Floor
127 WEST MAPLE AVENUE
Antique and Early American Furniture and Reproductions
Oriental Rugs Rugs Cleaned and Repaired
Window Shades Picture Frames
Furniture Repaired, Remodeled, Upholstered and Refinished
Cabinet Work Furniture Crated

schools. After the play Santa Claus will visit the school and their tree will be uncovered when Santa will distribute the gifts to all the children from their schoolmates.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson, of Pontiac, entertained about a hundred guests at a dinner-dance at Bloomfield Hills Country Club Wednesday evening. The tables were beautifully decorated with roses, sweet peas and holly.

On Christmas Day, there will be an all day hunt at Bloomfield Hills Country Club, with drag at half past served at five, or upon the return of the hunters.

Walter Johnson, of London, England, was the guest-of-honor at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kirke Hoag at their home on Willetts Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Draper will entertain a number of the younger people of Bloomfield Hills, who have returned from colleges for the holiday season, at a buffet supper at their home on Quardon Road, Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Harding, of Detroit, entertained a party of eight at a bridge-luncheon at Bloomfield Hills Country Club Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berg, of Pierce street, will entertain about twenty guests at dinner Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Draper and Morris Draper Jr., of Adams Road, F. E. Bassett, of Bridgeport, Conn., will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kirke Hoag and Mrs. Annie R. Hoag, of Willetts Road, Christmas Day.

Mrs. L. D. Halstead, of Lone Pine Road, returned Saturday morning from East Orange, New Jersey, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Forest Tweedy, for about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Trevegan, of Clare, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Conroy, of Grayling, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conroy, of Ravine Road, Christmas Day.

Mrs. Charles Craig and her two sons, of North Woodward avenue, left Wednesday morning for Chicago to be the guests of relatives for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hagerman and sons, Clyde, Jr., and Hilliard, of Ludington, will be weekend guests of their daughter, Mrs. Albert A. Clarke, and family, at their home, "Crows' Nest," on Adams road, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagerman will leave here to spend Christmas with another daughter, Mrs. W. A. P. John, of the Eastern Stars will entertain the children of both organizations at the Woodward avenue Club house on Saturday, December 22, from 3 to 6 o'clock. Parents are asked to bring their children to the party and their children will be entertained by Roy A. D. Jardine.

Mrs. Emma E. Snow, and Margaret Bell, her granddaughter, left yesterday for California. They took the Santa Fe Route and will all of them to spend some time at Grand Canyon. They will spend four weeks in California as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller, of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McDonald, touring Jamaica and the British West Indies, returned to their home on Quardon Road, where they spent several days in New York.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kendall, of Greenwood avenue, A. W. Reed and son, of Walker, Ontario, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Waldo and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kendall, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Kay, of North Woodward avenue, will spend this week-end and Christmas Day at Jackson, Michigan, as guests of Mrs. Russel Dunning, of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perry and family, of North Woodward avenue, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Huttmann, of Chicago.

This week-end, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hutchinson, of Brookside Drive, will leave for Waterville, Ohio, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Jane Hutchinson for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Farrington Holt, their home with Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Holt, on Linden Road, will move into their new home on Linden Road this week-end. Over the Christmas holidays, they will entertain Mrs. Holt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Packard, of Chicago.

Mrs. E. S. Hassberger, of Ann Arbor, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hassberger, of Yorkshire Road, several days next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stoddard and Miss Gail Smith, of Detroit, will spend Christmas Day as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Albert Moore, of Hartman street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Monahan, of Ravine Road, will entertain Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barry, Edward W. Ratty and Mrs. Margaret Seymour, all of Detroit, at their home on Christmas Day.

The St. Cecilia choir of St. James' Church will be among the carolers on Christmas Eve. They will start their caroling at half past five in the evening.

Cleveland, formerly of Birmingham. At the Bloomfield Hills Country Club tomorrow evening, a keno party will be staged, this to be in the form of an exchange party. Each one is to bring something of whatever is brought will be played for. Supper will be served.

Miss Mary Clark Griffith, of Boston, is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. George Albert Moore, of Lakeside and Harmon streets. She will be their guests for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McCalman, and son, John, of Ferndale avenue, will spend several days next week as the guests of Mrs. F. R. Waldron of Ann Arbor.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malender, of Quardon Road, Christmas Day, will be Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCormick and children, of Pontiac, and Mrs. George Richardson, of Quardon Road. Milton Malender, their son, who has been attending college at Albion, will also be home for the holidays.

Lieut-Col. R. B. Hewitt, of Oakland avenue, left Tuesday for Columbus, Ohio, where he will remain until Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. George Raynald, of Tooling Lane, and Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Glover, of North Woodward Avenue, entertained a number of friends at dinner and bridge Wednesday evening.

Mrs. I. T. Hunt, of Boston, and her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Kupper, two children, of Fort Andrews, Boston, will arrive this evening, to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Dweley, of East Maple avenue. Mrs. Dweley's guests until spring, while Mrs. Kupper and her children will take an apartment on Ferndale avenue for several months.

Mrs. J. T. Walker arrived on Tuesday from Indianapolis, Indiana, to be with her husband, Chas. G. Walker, of Pierce street, and his family through the holidays.

She entered the contest at the University soon after school closed and played four games, which she won, preceding the final games which decided the match.

There were fourteen entrants in the freshmen class and Miss Maxine Taylor showed great skill in defeating the four contestants she was matched with. In the spring she will play with other class champions to decide whether the university laurels will remain in the Freshmen Class or if they will go to an upper class.

Miss Bazz is a member of the graduating class of 1923 of the Baldwin High School, and was also Miss Maxine Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor, of Southfield avenue, who distinguished herself at Mount Ida School where she is attending. Miss Taylor was elected president of the freshmen class and cheer leader, and in a display of horsemanship among the girls of the school, she was awarded the first prize.

Miss Taylor returned today from Newton, Ontario, where the school is located, for the holidays, and will be with her parents until January 5.

It was requested that those desiring to be the carolers stop at their home place a candle in their windows, as has been the custom.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Miner and latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Cooper, of Ferndale avenue, will leave Christmas morning for Warpage, where they will spend the holiday season with the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Haynes, of that city.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cutcheon, of Lakeview, over the holiday season will be Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mrs. George Johnson and Mrs. E. B. Alles and children, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Streng, of Denver.

Mrs. A. L. McCormick, of Maple and Adams Road, will be hostess at a small luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club Friday in honor of Mrs. August Goebel, of Pasadena, California, formerly of Pine Lake. Mrs. Goebel is the house stewardess of her mother, Mrs. Hazelton Wallace, of Detroit.

Last evening, at their home on Woodward avenue, Birmingham, their officers for the coming year, and conferred the E. degree. Supper was served at half past six.

A PRACTICAL XMAS GIFT for Mother or Wife—one of our EASY ELECTRIC WASHERS, $5.00 down and the balance in easy installments, will put one in your home for Xmas. HUSTON HARDWARE CO., Birmingham, adv35

52 issues of the Birmingham Eccentric for $1.50. Telephone or write for your subscription this week. Adv. 35

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
Dr. Mabel Campbell Levison Bldg.
Phone 103. Office hours: 9-12; 1-5.
Other hours by appointment.

the wardrobe trunk you give your son or daughter this Christmas is a

Hartman
You'll find the Hartman Wardrobe is the universal reference in trunks the world over.
E. A. O'NEAL
102 S. Woodward
PHONE 133

PRINTING IS THE INSEPARABLE COMPANION OF ACHIEVEMENT—
It is also the Bridge of Time over which passes most of the world's history, and by which we record the world's progress, value aims and achievements. As you read this you are thinking of printing; let us remind you that The Birmingham Eccentric is equipped to do your printing. We solicit your patronage.

Weddings
Hill—Orr
Of unusual interest and prettiness was the wedding of Miss Francis Hill of Detroit, and Walter B. Orr of Pittsburgh, at their own home on Clarke street, Saturday evening at half past eight. Rev. W. C. McKnight of the First Presbyterian church officiating. The house, which they had furnished and made ready for occupancy, was beautiful in decorations of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Only members of immediate families were present.

Local Girls Who Have Captured Sports Honors
Margaret Bazz Awarded the Freshmen Tennis Championship At U. of M.
MAXINE TAYLOR AWARDED FIRST PRIZE IN DISPLAY OF HORSEMANSHIP
Miss Margaret Bazz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berg, Pierce street, who attends the University of Michigan, won the University Freshmen Girls' Tennis championship in Ann Arbor on November 28. She was, during her school days here, a prominent figure in tennis circles.

Brevities
The cantata, "The Christmas Story," by Matthew West, was sung by the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday evening, at 7:30, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Reinhardt. The soloists are: Suzanne Ruth Maynard and Clara Wilson; contralto, Mrs. L. J. Slusser; tenor, Fred Reinhardt; and baritone, Ray Winegar and E. E. Staebler.

The fourth annual presentation of the Nativity Play will be given in St. James' church this evening. An elegant and beautiful production of the year's experience is making the play a contribution towards the enrichment of community life and it is foreseen that the community will therefore show its interest by attending. The pageant begins at eight o'clock.

On Monday evening, at their home on Squares Lake road, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cranmer entertained a number of guests from Pontiac, Detroit, Ann Arbor and Birmingham at a birthday dinner in honor of the daughter, Naomi. Announcement was also made at this time of her engagement to Frank B. Noye of Birmingham, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Olsen, of Oxford, formerly of Birmingham, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Olsen, of Willetts street, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hunt and daughter, Jean, of Grand Rapids, are spending the next two weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hunt, of Townsend street.

Little Miss Noel Dweley was hostess to a group of friends Tuesday afternoon at her home for four to six in the evening in celebration of her fifth birthday. A dainty little Christmas tree and the corresponding colors were used for the decorations. Games and music were enjoyed, after which a delightful luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clizbe, of West Maple avenue, returned Tuesday from Quincy, Michigan. They spent several days visiting Mr. Harriet Landerson, of Colon, Michigan, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. Clark, of Willetts street, for the past two months. Left Wednesday for Kalamazoo to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ned Woolley.

I am again selling Fresh Jersey Milk in Birmingham and vicinity. Call Birmingham 7024-F11. Ray Harrington, adv35

52 issues of the Birmingham Eccentric for $1.50. Telephone or write for your subscription this week. Adv. 35

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BIRMINGHAM, MICH.
NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS
Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of this Association for the purpose of electing directors and the transaction of all such other business as may properly come before such meeting will be held, pursuant to the By-Laws of this Association, at the Banking House of Birmingham, Michigan, on Wednesday, January 8, 1924, at 1:00 P. M., Central Standard Time.

The polls for the election of directors will be open from 1:00 P. M. until 3:00 P. M.
ALMERON WHITEHEAD,
President,
Birmingham, Mich., Dec. 5, 1923. adv34-37

BRUNSWICK RECORDS at Leonard Electrical Shop, W. Maple Ave. adv191f

MA JONG
Learn the fascinating modern Chinese game of MA JONG. The only game of its kind in the world. It is a game of skill and strategy. It is a game that can be played by all ages. It is a game that can be played by all classes. It is a game that can be played by all nations. It is a game that can be played by all people. It is a game that can be played by all who are interested in a game of skill and strategy. It is a game that can be played by all who are interested in a game that can be played by all ages, all classes, all nations, all people, all who are interested in a game of skill and strategy.

Notice To Dog Owners
All owners of dogs can pay their Dog Tax to the Treasurer of your township on or before January 25, 1924.
F. H. Losee,
County Treasurer.

THE Officers and Directors of this Bank extend to you their heartiest wishes for A Merry Christmas
AND
A Happy New Year

Weddings
Hill—Orr
Of unusual interest and prettiness was the wedding of Miss Francis Hill of Detroit, and Walter B. Orr of Pittsburgh, at their own home on Clarke street, Saturday evening at half past eight. Rev. W. C. McKnight of the First Presbyterian church officiating. The house, which they had furnished and made ready for occupancy, was beautiful in decorations of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Only members of immediate families were present.

Local Girls Who Have Captured Sports Honors
Margaret Bazz Awarded the Freshmen Tennis Championship At U. of M.
MAXINE TAYLOR AWARDED FIRST PRIZE IN DISPLAY OF HORSEMANSHIP
Miss Margaret Bazz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berg, Pierce street, who attends the University of Michigan, won the University Freshmen Girls' Tennis championship in Ann Arbor on November 28. She was, during her school days here, a prominent figure in tennis circles.

Brevities
The cantata, "The Christmas Story," by Matthew West, was sung by the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday evening, at 7:30, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Reinhardt. The soloists are: Suzanne Ruth Maynard and Clara Wilson; contralto, Mrs. L. J. Slusser; tenor, Fred Reinhardt; and baritone, Ray Winegar and E. E. Staebler.

The fourth annual presentation of the Nativity Play will be given in St. James' church this evening. An elegant and beautiful production of the year's experience is making the play a contribution towards the enrichment of community life and it is foreseen that the community will therefore show its interest by attending. The pageant begins at eight o'clock.

On Monday evening, at their home on Squares Lake road, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cranmer entertained a number of guests from Pontiac, Detroit, Ann Arbor and Birmingham at a birthday dinner in honor of the daughter, Naomi. Announcement was also made at this time of her engagement to Frank B. Noye of Birmingham, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Olsen, of Oxford, formerly of Birmingham, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Olsen, of Willetts street, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hunt and daughter, Jean, of Grand Rapids, are spending the next two weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hunt, of Townsend street.

Little Miss Noel Dweley was hostess to a group of friends Tuesday afternoon at her home for four to six in the evening in celebration of her fifth birthday. A dainty little Christmas tree and the corresponding colors were used for the decorations. Games and music were enjoyed, after which a delightful luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clizbe, of West Maple avenue, returned Tuesday from Quincy, Michigan. They spent several days visiting Mr. Harriet Landerson, of Colon, Michigan, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. Clark, of Willetts street, for the past two months. Left Wednesday for Kalamazoo to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ned Woolley.

I am again selling Fresh Jersey Milk in Birmingham and vicinity. Call Birmingham 7024-F11. Ray Harrington, adv35

52 issues of the Birmingham Eccentric for $1.50. Telephone or write for your subscription this week. Adv. 35

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF BIRMINGHAM, MICH.
NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS
Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of this Association for the purpose of electing directors and the transaction of all such other business as may properly come before such meeting will be held, pursuant to the By-Laws of this Association, at the Banking House of Birmingham, Michigan, on Wednesday, January 8, 1924, at 1:00 P. M., Central Standard Time.

The polls for the election of directors will be open from 1:00 P. M. until 3:00 P. M.
ALMERON WHITEHEAD,
President,
Birmingham, Mich., Dec. 5, 1923. adv34-37

BRUNSWICK RECORDS at Leonard Electrical Shop, W. Maple Ave. adv191f

MA JONG
Learn the fascinating modern Chinese game of MA JONG. The only game of its kind in the world. It is a game of skill and strategy. It is a game that can be played by all ages. It is a game that can be played by all classes. It is a game that can be played by all nations. It is a game that can be played by all people. It is a game that can be played by all who are interested in a game of skill and strategy.

Notice To Dog Owners
All owners of dogs can pay their Dog Tax to the Treasurer of your township on or before January 25, 1924.
F. H. Losee,
County Treasurer.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
A Bank For All The People

Merry Christmas
Useful Gifts for Christmas

Reasonable prices and satisfaction has enabled me to be here for 30 years

Watches
Clocks
Jewelry
Cut Glass
Toilet Sets
Fancy China

PENS
PENCILS
1847 ROGERS BROS.
W.M. ROGERS 1885
STERLING SILVER
COMMUNITY SILVER

H. W. Baxter
The Jeweler
112 EAST MAPLE AVE.

Santa Has a Bag Full of Gifts for the Men Folks, at Our Store

SHIRTS
In Gift Boxes

White Repps - $2.50
White Poplins - $2.50 - $3 (with collars)
Silk Stripes - $3.00
Madras - $1.75 to $2.50
LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS
WOOL HOSE - 55c to $1.50

Silk Neckwear
(In Christmas Boxes)
In all Shades and Designs to Suit Particular Men
CUT SILKS and KNITS
Wool Mufflers

Belt Buckles
Belt Buckles from - 50c up
Sterling Silver at - $2.50 up
Initial Beltograms at - $1.00
Sterling Silver Ones - $2.50
SEE THESE SPLENDID GIFTS IN ORDER TO APPRECIATE THEM

CHARLES PECK
TAILOR - MEN'S FURNISHINGS
126 West Maple
PHONE 230
Cleaning - Pressing - Altering