Glady, we are not saying that you hit Curly, but where did he get the "diner"?

Arnold Grooms went hunting last Friday. His family is now enjoying rabbit and buckshot.

Another five weeks' test. It's just like taking Castor Oil, only more of it.

The basketball boys will show their stuff this Thursday away from home. How about a little spirit for a change?

Florance is worried again. A basketball floor is just as hard as any football field.

"Hiney" Paris avers he is not in love. Why Hiney, you don't tell that to Lillian, do you?

Tom may be your chauffeur now Allie, but wait awhile!

The football men wouldn't trade places with the girls of Wales now that they've got their sweaters. The "diner" doesn't stand for Bachelor either.

Max Purdy vows he will change his seat if Ayasha doesn't behave.

Left well got a new Ford coupe the other day. Get the champagne Spub, we'll christen it.

Hunt says the "Football" was on the committee. Yes, Stanley was in the second chair from the end.

The Domestic Science Class have been making Christmas Candy this week and last.

Paris's brother is learning fast. He wanted to know what the "extra" girl was for in girls' basketball. Six of one and half a dozen on the other side. "Hiney Junior."

Roehm reports that his row was quiet Thursday afternoon. Kelly went to Detroit for the night.

High School students are awaiting with keen anticipation the presentation of the senior play, "Turn to the Right" which occurs Friday evening, January 11. The cast is hard at work and this play promises to compare favorably with the past.

Miss Fearson, Mrs. Horwath and Miss Walker are directing the production.

Doll Sale
You may have noticed that the Bluebirds are having a doll sale on Saturday morning at Phillips' house. It is rather an interesting sale, for the Bluebirds bought and dressed the doll she contributed. These dolls will make very attractive Christmas presents for your little friends, whom you quite a selection of them, in varied costume.

Boys' Night.
This coming Saturday night will be "boys' night" and from now on, the second and fourth Saturday of each month will be devoted to the boys have been secured. Several new games which he wishes to, may come. Certain hours and days have been scheduled for the Billiard Room, and it is not to be used except at these times, namely, Thursday afternoon, Thursday evening, Friday afternoon and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Lynd of the Y. M. C. A. has been very kind and is co-operating with us in an attempt to make the "boys' night" a success. He has appointed Berger to be in charge Thursday evening and Wednesday night, Russell evening. All permissions to be asked of them. Will the boys please be in mind also that the House is closed from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. every day?

Civic League Postponed
During the holidays, when there is so much else going on, it has seemed advisable to discontinue a few of the regular Community House activities. The Civic League will not meet until January 7; the meetings of the Camp Fire Girls and Bluebirds as well as the Business Girls' Club will be postponed until this time also. The House will be open, however, for the use of anybody who wishes it, except on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McClure and five children, of Madison avenue, will leave December 31 for Santa Anna, California, where they will make their home. Mr. McClure's ill health is responsible for their moving and they expect to make their home there from two to three years.
