YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY

A group of Birmingham's "younger marrieds" gave a dinner party in Detroit last night and went to see "The Canyons" at the Garrick this week. The group included Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Edwards, and Dr. and Mrs. George Raynal.

Last Monday afternoon Mrs. T. K. Donovan opened her home to the St. Margaret's Guild, of St. James' Church, for a benefit bridge and tea. There were twenty-five tables of bridge with prizes for each table, the prizes being beautiful handkerchiefs. Tea was served at 5 o'clock with Mrs. Charles L. Platts presiding at the tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robertson, of Quanton Road, entertained twenty guests at their home on Monday evening. Pedro and 500 took up the evening until eleven o'clock when lunch was served, after which the rooms were turned over to dancing.

At dinner on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shell, Park Street, had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Rex Lee, and Mrs. James Barrett, of the Aviation Club, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, of Detroit. Pink roses and a hair fern formed a very dainty centerpiece for the table. The evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Shell.

The Aviation Town and Country Club entertained at the Town Club last Wednesday evening with an aviation-golf dinner. On that evening the various cups which had been awarded in the year were presented.

St. Margaret's Guild of the St. James Church were guests of Mrs. Harry G. Washburn at luncheon on Tuesday noon at her home on Maple and Quanton Roads. In the afternoon Mrs. Washburn opened her home for their business meeting.

The Women's Guild of the St. James Church had their monthly luncheon on last Wednesday in the dining-room of the church. Mrs. C. Utter acted as hostess.

On Friday evening, November 28, a dinner party was given by Mrs. John Endicott at her home on Charlemagne Road in honor of her fifteenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Ruth. Covers were laid for twelve and a three course dinner was served.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will be held Wednesday, December 12, at the church. There will be a pot luck dinner at 11 o'clock, and the meeting will be from 2 until 3 o'clock.

A full attendance is desired. The Oakland Rebekah Lodge, gave a delicious dinner for their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Shain, on Martin street, on last Monday. They also had as their guests

PUPPET REVIEW GETS LARGEST AUDIENCE

The premier performance of the "Puppet Review" was staged at the Grand Opera House last night. The review was staged at the Baldwin Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday night. The review was staged at the Baldwin Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. on Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Allen, of Long Lake Road, left Wednesday night for Chicago and South Bend, Indiana, where they will spend a week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stone entertained sixteen guests at a dinner Saturday evening in honor of their house guests, Stanley and Irene Purdy, of Indianapolis, at their home on Harmon street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hammond and family of Bloomfield Hills, will move into their winter home in Grosse Pointe, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brady, of Oakland avenue, will leave today for Miami, Florida, where they will spend the winter. Their new home at their home will be occupied by Mrs. Guy T. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Brady and Mrs. F. W. Hoyle.

Miss Vera M. Amos, of Cranbrook Cottage, spent the week-end with friends in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Glover was hostess at a tea at her home on North Woodward avenue last Wednesday. She had as her guests the members of the Westminister Guild on their First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Lynch are moving today from their home on Oakland avenue, which they have occupied for several years, to their new home which has just been completed.

On or about December 15th, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, of Merrill Park, will leave for California, to join their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Whittemore. They will make their return here until early spring.

The fourth and last dance of the season given by the Married People's Dancing Club will be held Tuesday evening, December 11, at the I. O. O. F. Temple. These dances, which have been very successful, have been getting the new people in the village better acquainted and also from a financial standpoint, have already cleared a surplus of over $100, which amount will be turned over to the Westminister Guild on their First Presbyterian Church.

A second series of four dances has been definitely decided upon, these dances to occur between January 15 and the Lenten season. The surplus of the first series will also be applied to the Student Loan Fund.

Tuesday last week, Mrs. Hendrick Bruse, of Oakland avenue, formerly of Pittsburgh, attended the meeting held at the main library, Detroit, where a Detroit chapter of the Carnegie Library School, of Pittsburgh, was formed. Luncheon was served after the meeting.

The American Association of University Women will hold their monthly meeting at the Community Home on December 12, to arrange a donation to the Clipped Children's Home at Farmington. They are also planning to turn over a sum of money to the Community Home Fund.

At the last meeting, held in November, the women completed outfits of clothing for the needy children in the Maplecrest Subdivision and purchased shoes and rubbers for all the children in the subdivision who were without and who had no way of obtaining them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert D. Thompson, of Pierce street, are entertaining Mrs. Thompson's mother, who is here from Toledo for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Edwards, of Union Lake, formerly of Birmingham, increased their family by the birth of a son, a boy, on November 29th when they became the parents of twins, a boy, Norman Richard, and a girl, Caroline Louise.

THE MAN WHO GOES OVER YOUR HEAD

In a business or social way is always a man who stuck to every dollar that he could possibly save, and has built up a fund that has enabled him to jump when the opportunity came.

Why don't YOU be the man who's always on the way up? The road leads through Thriftville!

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

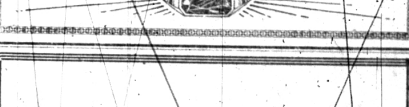

At the annual dinner of the Birmingham Gun Club on Wednesday night, twenty members turned out for the shoot in the afternoon. Robert S. Horvath was the victor in a 75 shot 75 out of 100 pigeons. E. V. Burrows came in second with a score of 60 out of 100.

After the about the men were served a good, old-fashioned dinner in the clubhouse, followed by the election of the officers for the coming year. The officers elected for 1924 were: Wm. M. Story, president; Phillip Schlaack, vice president; Robert S. Forritt, field captain; Frank Schlaack, treasurer, and J. Bert Peabody, secretary.
