OUTSTANDING IN AMERICAN HISTORY FEBRUARY 22nd

Washington's love of liberty and his strong patriotism made him recognize clearly the opportunities of a thrifty nation. His letters and speeches refer to this subject again and again.

On February 22nd the United States celebrates the birthday of Washington—the outstanding figure in American History.

This Institution, therefore, will be closed on February 22nd, not only to honor George Washington, our first President, but also to honor George Washington—a man who advocated the principles to which this Bank is dedicated.

ANCIENT RUINS

MAY BE ALL RIGHT IN ROME BUT NOT IN YOUR HOME

Some of the ancient ruins of Rome have a historic value. But your house, in a dilapidated condition, loses its value.

BUILDING REPAIRS ARE GOOD INVESTMENTS

A few simple repairs made in time often save the cost of an entire new roof or porch.

Come in and learn how little it will cost to make those necessary repairs. Perhaps we can help you plan the improvements.
