BIRMINGHAM BASKETERS DEFEAT HOLLY H. S. 20-19

The Birmingham high school basketball team took a trip to Holly Friday, Jan. 19, and won another victory. The Birmingham team started off like a flash, getting a basket almost immediately after the opening whistle blew, but could not keep the pace long. The floor they played on at the home of the Holly team was being played on that the Holly team had a big advantage over them.

The snow has made the classes of the high school "class spirit" and each ride parties reign supreme.

SENIOR HIGH ASSEMBLY Assembly was in charge of the Senior class this week. It was opened with a song by the school. Ruth Verney, read the Scripture. Rev. Julian West led us in prayer, after which he gave a talk about West Point and the story of Benedict Arnold as told him by an old soldier at that place. "Dobble" Drake lined up the first squad football team and gave them their long looked for "B" which were great big ones, too.

Larry Howe led the school in a "Viva Team." The second squad then received their "B's" and had a yell led by Fenton Westberry. Chapel closed with the School Song.

JUNIOR HIGH ASSEMBLY The Junior high assembly Friday commemorated Robert Burns' birthday by singing, "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton" and "Auld Lang Syne." Mr. West read the scriptural motto "An Ekimo Tragedy" was given by a group of seventh graders.

Mr. Vliet then gave a little talk which was very interesting, telling about his travels around Northern Canada, and also gave a poem called "The Wreck of the Jatte Flare" by Drummond, in French-Canadian dialect.

The Junior high chorus sang "Joy Flies Away," and then a group of six girls sang another selection. Marion Quorton rendered a reading "Mr. Jones Has His Hair Cut," in an enjoyable manner.

A vaudeville show was given last Saturday evening in the High School auditorium to help in the purchase of the football men's sweaters. Eight very pleasing acts were presented. A large crowd was present and pronounced the show a success.

The first was a piano duet by Douglas Atchison and Shirley Rossini, the "professional" names of "Doug and Fay." The girls quartet gave two pleasing selections. Then some of the high school boys showed their skill at wrestling and some stunts. Mr. Hart sang two songs, accompanied by Miss Gratton. Miss Priest used her crayon very successfully. The boys' quartet impersonated the "sons" of the "Hen Roost Club." Mr. Pullin then "instructed" his audience in magic. To complete the program Charlotte Whalen gave two very pretty dances.

SEVENTH GRADE SLEIGH RIDE Last Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock the seventh grade went in front of the high school for a sleigh-ride party. There were about 45 sleighs. Graders all suited in the sleighs ready to start for a long ride into the country, with Miss Grey and Mr. Arledge as drivers.

THE JUNIOR SLEIGH RIDE The Junior Class met at the school Friday eve, Jan. 19, for a sleigh ride party. Although both basketball teams journeyed to Holly and a lot of supporters with them, there was a good turn out.

The time everyone was wishing to be inside the sleigh stopping in front of the school, and they went into the prettily decorated lower hall. The rest of the evening was spent in games and dancing, after which light refreshments were served and the sleighs departed for their homes, all certain that they had had a very nice time.

A Sales Manager's Letter. LONG DISTANCE helps one large wholesale house serve its 4,500 customers in Southern Michigan and builds business for the Company. The General Sales Manager of that Company, comparing the work of a modern telephone salesman with that of one of the old school, writes: "In 124 days the telephone salesman called on 4,628 merchants, 4,522 of them by telephone, averaging 37 calls per day. "The old school salesman made 3,750 calls in 216 days, less than half of them by telephone, and averaged only 18 calls per day. "The average daily sales of the man who sold by telephone were two and one-half times those of the member of the old school." The telephone is quick, handy and a sure card of admittance. It builds business and good-will and lowers selling costs. Michigan State Telephone Company
