

Do YOU Know?

What cities in the United States do these illustrations represent? Each is depictive of the name of some metropolis having a population of 100,000 people or more. Can you figure out what they are? If so, you are in line for $10 which will be awarded by The ECCENTRIC to the first person turning in the correct answers. Second award $5.00. If none of the participants turn in correct lists the one who has the most names right will receive $10 and the person having the next nearest correct list will receive $5. Speed counts! The first correct list turned into this of-
