

An open meeting of the Council of the P. T. A. was held in the hall of the high school Wednesday evening, January 24. It was unanimously decided to erect a new gymnasium in the high school. The following officers were elected: W. W. Henry, president; Mrs. Waterman, vice-president; and Mr. McCrae, secretary-treasurer.

FOUR GREAT FEARS
COUNT 'EM
Four great fears accompany you from your home to your work and from you throughout the day—
1. The fear of your family being left unprotected for your absence.
2. The fear of a penniless old age for yourself.
3. The fear of loss of income from total or partial disablement.
4. The fear of losing what you have accumulated.
Wouldn't it be worth while for you to have four guarantees to protect you from these four fears? You can have them. All you need to do is write for a booklet telling you all the details.

Theatres
At the Howland Theater, Pontiac
It is the opinion of the patrons of the Princess Players that "Smilin' Jim," the play which is being presented at the Howland; is by far the most beautiful stage attraction ever seen in this city. "Smilin' Jim" was first produced in New York City at the Republic theater with Miss Jane Curnin in the principal role, where it immediately became an overnight sensation and today thrives in the principal city most talked of play written in ten years.

At the I. O. O. F. Temple
The chief character in the new Paramount picture produced by Mr. William S. Hart and directed by the I. O. O. F. Temple, is Oak Miller, a gambler, and a man with a white outfit, and is said to be the one of the most vivid pictures of pioneer days that was ever produced.

One of the prettiest and merriest parties of the winter season was the birthday party of Douglas Sinclair Lamborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Lamborn, of Greenwood avenue, Wednesday, January 27. The party was held at the home of the birthday girl, and was very tastefully decorated, pink being the color standing out. The same color was used in the decorations, and the guests, by pulling these ribbons, were rewarded with caps which had been carefully con-
