Having To Do With A Real Revival Of Religion In Christian Homes By GENERATION AND REGENERATION

The Birth of Holy Children (1 Cor. 7:14) and Their Nurture By Christian Parents, in Christian Homes, Directed and Supervised By The Christian Churches off to Australia to meet his wife. How did he do it? Why, simply by teaching his followers how to be consistent, Christian, simple life.

Without going exact as far as Duvie's people go in some things, it will greatly help along the new revival if Christian generally will take a leaf out of their book and consult it when regulating their home expense.

A word about the church: I use the term as it is used in Matt. 18:17—A Christian congregation is a place to meet in. But, there should be no more of either extravagance or biggishness about it.

I want to say something more about pastors and preachers. I believe in the near future the best preachers will do nothing but preach. It is not reason that they who have superior ability as preachers should have the word of God and do work that can be much better done by men and women with smaller brains and less education.

Finally, I think a great mistake is made in expecting a "Pentecostal revival." I fully and firmly believe that salvation is by grace through faith, and that Jesus is a savior—the only Savior. I further believe that it is God the Holy Spirit who convicts, converts and regenerates.

ized with the Holy Ghost." So on the Day of Pentecost they were all "filled with the Holy Ghost."

I have never heard of the Holy Spirit went back to heaven as did our Lord when he ascended; or that he comes and goes back and forth from heaven in answer to prayer.

When Sunday schools are done away with pastors will have much more to do than they have now. They will have to oversee the church school for children under 10 years of age. They will have to be visiting the homes of the people, establishing and maintaining household religion, teaching the fathers and mothers up to their duties, conversing with the parents and catechizing the children.

I know the plan I have indicated is being followed with some extent already where there are one or more assistant pastors these latter doing certain definite things.

I advocate a revival of religion by religion rather than a revival of religion by rapture because it is more in keeping with the Bible and is certainly permanent.

Many evangelical preachers realize that Roman Catholics, Lutherans, Jews and others, who insist on a religious education for their children, are in the main right.

If I am right on this point, then it is a merit with the church to know of knowledge for Christians to read, to know of knowledge for Christians to read, to know of knowledge for Christians to read.

The merchants of Birmingham are here to stay. They chose to locate here because they believe in Birmingham. They are not interested in a quick "clean-up", in running up sales/records; but to grow steadily with the growth of the town.

Nothing can contribute to the growth of any place like a strong mercantile backing. Nothing is asked of the merchants of Birmingham that they are not glad to give of freely. You can help them to help the town—you can help yourself by trading at home.

Generally, the methods recommended are simply these: First, an understanding and agreement is come to by the father and mother as to the place and when and where the family devotions shall be conducted.

The cry everywhere at the present time is that there is something wrong with our religious system. What is it? There is no lack of money to build churches, pay pastors, erect organs, maintain choirs, or anything else.

BIG NEW STAND FOR STATE FAIR

STRUCTURE IS PLANNED WHICH WILL SEAT 8,000 PERSONS

Among the $1,000,000 worth of improvements that will be made at the great Michigan State Fair, which will be held at Detroit August 11 to September 3, this year, will be a new grand stand that will seat 8,000 persons.

The new structure will enable many more than usual to view the great events such as the horse races, the automobile races, the big fireworks demonstrations and other, colorful features such as ball games and the like.

Here, it is the desire of the secretary-manager, George W. Dickinson, and the members of the board to make comfortable accommodations for these points for as many persons as possible so that all visitors to the fair during the busy season will be able to see the nation's greatest exhibition.

Early indications are that there will be a record attendance at the fair during certain special events, that many additional thousands are expected to come from near and far to witness the events being made to bring to these events more of great national prominence and vantage points of nationwide popularity.

ART BUILDING AT FAIR Fifty thousand dollars will be spent on an Art Building by the Michigan State Fair to encourage the arts.

STATE FAIR TO BOOST HORSES

BIG INCREASE IN PREMIUMS ANNOUNCED BY MANAGER DICKINSON

Horse lovers of Michigan have rejoiced with pleasure the announcement of George W. Dickinson, secretary-manager of the Michigan State Fair, that the prize money for the exposition in Detroit, August 11 to September 9, horses are going to receive more attention than ever before.

All classes of horses will enjoy a part in this department of the nation's greatest show event. The classes that have been represented in previous years will all be present again as well as new entries.

Estimates of $47,736 will be given this year to the prize winning horses as compared with $37,000 last year.

Early indications are that there will be a record attendance at the fair during certain special events, that many additional thousands are expected to come from near and far to witness the events being made to bring to these events more of great national prominence and vantage points of nationwide popularity.
