SMALL TOWN HUMOR AND PHILOPHOPY

By BUCK CAMPBELL... A long-distance telephone message will make you feel short... Quilt worrying, if you want to get rid of that wobegone appearance...

GOOBER BRAINS

It is interesting to observe the manner in which small brains can run away with themselves... It is to be pitied when these molecules of gray matter are in a position where their menial wandering can be put into print... One can only hope that the editorial writer on the Charlotte Republican does not reflect the attitude of his community... There will be little grief upstate because the 1923 Pickers motor trip has been called off...

Our Own Weekly Wanderings

In order to properly reap the harvest of a field, the farmer must first plant the seed... The soil is a village of about 700 million acres of earth... Last Saturday morning, a certain Mrs. Adams and her husband...

There is a wondrous quiet and restfulness in motoring over the country early in the morning... The country is a village of about 700 million acres of earth... Last Saturday morning, a certain Mrs. Adams and her husband...
