St. James' Episcopal
Saturday, Easter Even - 9:30 a.m., 4:00 service; 10:30 a.m. Story hour; 4:00 p.m. Day Holy Communion at 4:00 and 10:30 a.m. See announcements elsewhere. Church school festival and baptisms at 9 p.m. As many of the communicants as possible urged to make their communion at the early service so that the later celebration may not be unduly lengthened.

First United Presbyterian
Corner Woodward and Forest. Service for Sunday, April 1. Preaching at 10 a.m.; Bible school at 12:00 evening service at 7:30. Rev. W. A. Minter of New Concord, O., will deliver the message at both services. Please notice the change of hours of service.

First Baptist
Corner of Bates and Willets. Pastor, T. J. Edwards. Morning worship at 10:30. The pastor will speak on "The Inner Meaning of the Resurrection and the Lord's Supper." The Bible school meets at 12 noon. The Intermediate Society will convene at 2:30 p.m. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, the pastor will speak on "The Significance of the Resurrection of Christ to the Bible World." You are cordially invited to attend all the services in the "Home-like Church."

First Presbyterian
This church believes with Paul, that Christ be not risen, then our preaching vain, and your faith is vain also. But because He is risen, we give you to our Easter services on Sunday. We will welcome you with Easter music, Easter flowers, an Easter sermon and Easter fellowship. The subject of the pastor's sermon at the agnostic service, which begins promptly at 10:30, will be "The Symbol of the Broken Seal." The Sunday school will have a short service program at 12:15, to which we invite the parents and friends of the children. The evening service begins at 7:30. And again we invite you all to hear the Easter story, but this time in music and picture and pantomime. The music part will be sung by the choir in Beethoven's "The Conquering King." You'll find the service worthwhile. Visitors and strangers will of course be welcomed as usual. New members will be received at the morning service.

First Methodist
Easter Sunday - Morning worship, 10:30. Organ prelude, "Easter Morn"; hymn, "O the Golden Glowing Morning"; Chorus duet, "Hosanna"; Mrs. L. J. Smauer and Miss Ruth Magyard; anthem, "Christ Our Passover"; sermon, "Man's Age-Long Question"; hymn, "Let Us Make It the Biggest Ever."
Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Some special features in the opening hour followed by the study of the Easter Lesson. Everybody is invited to participate in the special Easter offering. Let us make it the biggest ever.
Evening Service, 7:30. The Sunday School Easter program will be given in the evening. It is called "The Easter Story in Pantomime." It promises to be of unusual interest. Scenes from the trial, crucifixion, resurrection of our Saviour will be presented in living pictures making the world's greatest tragedy very vivid and real. Come early to secure a seat where you can see.

Mildred Toothacker of Merrill street, is spending the Easter vacation as the guest of Betty Meade of Traverse City.

Mrs. Maxwell Purchis of Detroit, was a caller at the home of Mrs. Ford Peabody of Park street, Tuesday.
