Cut Your Gasoline Expense You can do it easily by selecting a gasoline which is uniform at all times; which exactly fits the needs of your engine and which can be secured wherever you may be. Miles per gallon is the truly important measure of gasoline efficiency. To cut your gasoline expense you must get maximum mileage. To do this Buy Red Crown The High Grade Gasoline Red Crown will give you more miles per gallon than any other gasoline you can buy, regardless of price, because— Red Crown Gasoline contains a perfect chain of boiling point fractions, commencing at about 95 degrees Fahrenheit and ending at about 427 degrees Fahrenheit—without a gap. Red Crown vaporizes to the last drop—there is no waste—every atom is converted into miles—to cut your gasoline expense.

OBITUARY

Thomas Gasey Thomas Gasey, a resident of Polk County, Minnesota, for over 40 years, and a member of Crookston during most of that time, died of heart attack at his farm home on time last Saturday afternoon at evening. Some friends entered his home to pay him a visit and found his bed empty on a bed. Mr. Gasey went to Polk County in the early eighties and settled in Crookston. He was born in Hoosier, N. York years ago. After arriving in Crookston he started work in the county auditor's office and later commenced to teach. He taught school at Feller, East Grand Forks, Red Lake Falls and in Crookston. He was a superintendent for several years after 1901. He was also one of the few teachers who received a pension for extended period of service, having taught over thirty years. He was a retired and active life and lived on a little farm northeast of Crookston.

The deceased is survived by four sons: Tom of Havre, Mont., Walter of Mission, Okla., John of Crookston, Okla., Cecil of Crookston, a daughter of Omaha; four brothers, James, of Rochester, Robert, of Pontiac, Joseph, of Appleton; George, of Minnetonka; and two sisters, Mrs. David Roy, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Mary Ann McDonald, of Appleton.

Mrs. Stephen Warner Mrs. Stephen Warner, at the age of 31 years, died at the Pontiac City hospital, Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, as the result of a complication of disease. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Farmer's Store, Pontiac, with burial at Oak Hill Cemetery, surviving as her husband, Stephen.

Barbara Ruth Hancock Miss Barbara Ruth Hancock, aged 2 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hancock of Ypsilanti, formerly of Birmingham, died last Saturday from a complication of disease. The funeral services were held Monday at the residence of her parents in Ypsilanti, with burial in Roseland Park cemetery, Royal Oak. Interment at the residence of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Birmingham officiated at the burial. A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hartwell, of Brown street, was Mrs. D. W. Hayes, of Port Huron.
