Southfield News Notes

HALSEY L. STEPHENS After suffering from ill-health for several years, Halsey L. Stephens died this week at his home in Southfield at the age of sixty-eight years.

Charles Bingham, Village Commissioner, heard a great deal about wells in Southfield. I told a fellow the other day, as we watched the drilling operations on our new well, that I wasn't as much interested in wells as I am in water - good water and lots of it.

William E. Price died April 30 at his home in Southfield at the age of 57 years. The deceased was born in Little Falls, N. Y., having come to Michigan when a young man, missing the trip on foot to the home of Frank Blevins of Bedford township in 1891.

"Mother"

No word in our language has a greater meaning than the word—"MOTHER." It brings memories to us of all she has done and, in many cases, still is doing for us.

The last we can do is to honor her—with flowers on Mother's Day. Cherish her memory, if she has passed on, by wearing a White Flower. If she is living, a Colored Flower is appropriate.
