The Law and the Railroads

Railroad recovery in Michigan—the "Better Service" you hear about and enjoy—is being provided you despite the severe handicaps imposed by a multitude of special laws.

Such laws have established certain governmental bodies entirely separate and without co-ordination. These bodies fix our rates for carrying freight and passengers—pass judgment on all of our security issues and other financing—specify the working hours of our employees and the wages we must pay them—limit our profits, when there ARE profits, to a small and definite maximum—have full jurisdiction over our tax assessments—restrict rigidly our methods of competition—hedge about, with a multitude of restrictions, every department of our operations.

Michigan's 24 steam railroads honestly try to obey every one of these laws. We do not even ask for a lightening of this load.
But we do maintain that this present burden should NOT be INCREASED.

We are furnishing you today the best transportation you have ever had. With conditions unchanged, we can see our way clear to still further improving our service.

Give us a square deal—an honest chance.

And let this Association know you consider this a reasonable request.

Theatres

At The Baldwin Theatre
The Goldwyn-Comopolitan Production, "Slaves of Desire," will be the attraction at the popular Baldwin Theatre for next Sunday only together with 5 high-class Vaudeville acts. This feature has played at several of the principal Detroit theatres in the past two weeks and has met with hearty approval from all who have seen it.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, Pola Negri in another of her made-in-America pictures "The Cheat" will be the main film attraction. This feature was once filmed and shown before but at that time had Fannie Ward and Sessue Hayakawa as its stars. Miss Negri saw the possibilities of making it again with an all-new cast and with herself in the title role, giving to the motion-picture patrons another version of the story that set the tongues wagging in times past. Vaudeville acts of a clean high-class nature will round out the program.

Starting Thursday November 29, (Thanksgiving Day) Buster Keaton the "frozen-faced" comedian, will be seen in his first 9 reel feature comedy, "Three Ages," which has been proclaimed by press and public as being one of the biggest laugh-features ever screened. The Pathe News and Acrop's Fables will be added attractions on this bill with a special program of 5 stumpy vaudeville acts.

The attention of the patrons of the Baldwin Theatre is called to the fact that the performances will run continuous on Thanksgiving Day from 2:30 in the afternoon until 11 p. m.

An all-star cast in "Only A Shop Girl" and 5 great acts will be given tomorrow, Saturday, with a special matinee at 2:30 for children.

At The Royal Theatre
"Ponjola," First National's picture version of Cynthia Stockley's widely read story of the same title, which will open Sunday for two days at the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak, is as great a picture perfection as any photoplay that has been seen in this city for many months.

It is a picture that is not going to prove disappointing to those who read the book. Rather are the readers going to like the play even better than the story.

Sam E. Rork, who produced the play, has adhered faithfully to the original tale, and under the direction of Donald Crisp has given to the screen a masterfully constructed film.

Those who enjoy exciting drama, thrills and romance, blended in the proper proportions, have a treat in store for them in this powerful, pulse-quickening story of the African veldt.

On Tuesday and Wednesday "The Man Next Door" will be offered.

A story of the West, unique, unusual, romantic, dramatic and at times highly humorous. Such is "The Huntress," a First National picture which is playing a two day engagement at the Royal Theatre.
"The Huntress," which was directed by Lynn Reynolds, is a comedy-drama of the Northwest and offers an ideal starring vehicle for Colleen Moore, the newest First National star, who plays the titular role, that

At The High School
Jack Pickford never made a better motion picture, and in fact, few photoplays have been so compe-tely satisfying in so many respects as this star's picture of "Garrison's Finch," which will be shown for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund of the Baldwin High School December 2.
It is a confidently predicted that the latest cinema effort of the famous Mary Pickford well-known brother will be regarded generally as a most advantageous beginning under a new banner in the motion picture field of augmenting his popularity with the fans through "Finch" is one of those swift-moving racing stories such as are rarely written. It is replete with consummating excitement together with pleasing romance and compelling drama. It is one of those all-action pictures in which there is no let-up from the inception to the very finale.
Jack portrays the character of a heroic jockey and he acts and looks every inch the part. Payroll, he was never better cast and with the charming Madge Bellamy supporting him as a beautiful romantic girl, he succeeds in doing some of the best dramatic work of his long, brilliant career.

This picture has been especially recommended in connection with Children's Book Week by the National All Committee for Better Films of the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures, New York City.

At the Garrick, Detroit One of the causes of the phenomenal success of The Theatre Guild Repertory Company which came to the Garrick Theatre the week commencing Sunday evening, November 25th, to present three of its outstanding metropolitan triumphs is that its plays are selected by a Board of Managers which includes a lawyer, an actress, an artist, a producer and a playwright, all keenly interested in the theatre, but not all of the theatrical profession. The players, too, are chosen only with absolute regard to their fitness for the role assigned to them.
Thus, that distinguished actor, Basil Sydney, who heads The Theatre Guild Repertory Company, which will present "Peer Gynt," "The Devil's Disciple" and "He Who Gets Slapped" in Detroit, first came to American high fame when he played the name part in "He." He was then chosen by The Guild for the lead in "R. U. R." and from that to the chief male role in "The Devil's Disciple."

Your Question AND ITS ANSWER

QUESTION—"Will you please explain how Chiropactic accounts for the cause and cure of disease? Is it confined to diseases of the nervous system?"

ANSWER—Briefly stated, Chiropactic teaches that disease comes when the organs and tissues are weakened and their resistance lowered by lack of Vital Energy may become partially shut off by pressure. This pressure can exist only in the spine where the nerves make their exit between two ad movable bones. When pressure exists the organ supplied by the pinch-leased. Acting as a body mechanic, the Chiropactor locates the point clearly demonstrates that Chiropactic is not limited, but it is applicable in all kinds of sickness.
