

BALDWIN BEACON

A Weekly Journal Edited by the Students of Baldwin High School.

Senior Assembly
The Senior assembly last Friday was undoubtedly one of the best we have ever had. It was the "Passing Show of B. H. S." T. Walker made a "stunning" Greek and John Gore and Robert Schorr would make Gal-lagher and Skean green with envy. But the climax was reached when Barney Google and Sparky came in. Of course, we all thought it was a real horse, until its head fell off and we discovered our own "Sparky."

The second act was a little scene in Mr. Hart's office. Except for the singing any one may come up to the high school and see the scene any morning from 9 to 9:30 or after-noon, 1:15 to 1:45. This closed the assembly and all agreed on its clever-ness and originality.

It's Out!

Yes, the Baldwin Buzzer, the first Radio paper of its kind, six full pages of interesting literature.

This paper published by the Radio Club of Baldwin High School, and printed by the school press, promises to be bigger and better each month.

It is proving of interest to every one, as shown by the number of copies sold.

Spirit!

When the mud had settled and hostilities brought to an end Satur-day afternoon Birmingham was on the wrong end of a shutout. Though the victory, to the lads in Maroon and White belongs the honor. The pathetic paragraph in the grid history of Birmingham is season; a gallant, determined struggle against appalling odds. The support was conspicuous by its absence. If any one should feel badly about our failure to take the Stars and Stripes to victory it should be those who did not go and yell the team to victory. The team certainly has nothing to be ashamed of.

Our Foreign Javelins

Any one under the impression that football is a rough game should take up soccer.

"I'm going home where I'm ap-preciated," remarks Sparky, when asked him which way he was going. It's too bad the games aren't long-show his worth then. Saturday Ernie Shave was still tired from his 85 yard gallop judging from his speed Saturday.

The Yuletide spirit got Ernie in the last Quarter and he passed Wind-sor six pts. Generosity—I'll say so!

Just how many footballs did Birmingham bring home with them? Arithmetic fails us. We might ask Coach.

Though Captain Bray played well he showed no signs of his alleged ring career.

The next time we go to Windsor, we'll take motor launches for the hotel instead of shoulder pads, and ferry boats for our lineups. We're not Amphibians. A grid iron is preferable to a lake for a football contest.

Baldwin Briefs

The fellows who took the trip to Windsor came home with a vivid impression of "Hinglish, as she is spoke in Canada."

The only pass that was a success on our side went in the Interurban—Kelly to Mhnn.

Say "Jenny," only horses eat jump sugar.

By the way, Jeff Bell, where did you get that cute little pitcher?

Boehm swears he will never chase anyone in the "Halls" of B. H. S. again. Ask him why.

The football letter men were en-tertained at "Frenchy" Patenande's Tuesday evening. Don't get hurt Carnahan!

Chuck Taylor went to see "Sally, Irene, and Mary," while Ernie Mann was contented with "Potash and Perlmutter."

Beyond his customary liberal use of Webster's Dictionary, Curly Weaver is reported to be quiet and docile.

Melvin Burns has at last gotten his haircut. What if we'd lost to Port Huron, Fat?

Customs officers were sorely tried Saturday. According to them, there are pleasanter things on earth than searching sweat-soaked football out-fits.

The two darkest players on the Windsor team were the cleanest.

Wonder if the fellows who tried to tackle Curly Weaver are still dizzy. Any way if we'd won it, it might have brought on another world war. Peace at any cost.

What chance has a dry team in a wet town? The odds are 19-1 against them.

First Debate Friday Eve. Nov. 23
For several weeks now there has been much interest in the subject of "Ship Subsidies." Almost every time I go to Mr. Hart's office door I can see the outlined form of a ra-ving object which, as I look, seems to be the form of a boy. Yes it is. It is a debater practicing for his first deluge which takes place at 7:30 on Friday, November 23 at River Rouge.

We are looking forward to a very surprising team this year. The team for the first debate is composed of John Gore, who had experience last year in debating and who in future years, is either going to revise the Webster Dictionary or make one entitled "The Dictionary of Gore."

True to his name, "Gore," he is out for blood and we hope he finds it at River Rouge. Next to try his oratorical abilities is Robert Schorr. Bob, it is rumored, has had quite a bit of practice in plain arguing upon subjects as "Sunday Baseball" and "The Ku Klux Klan," and many other ambitions. He is not lowered any by such a subject as "Ship Subsidies" and he is going at high speed.

The last, but not least is Rollin Smith. Rollie has worked hard on his speech and the least we can say is that we are sure Rollie is going to be a big stepping stone to success in the first debate.

Girls Basket Ball
If a visitor were to drop in the gymnasium at 4 p. m. any Thursday they would be surprised at the pep and enthusiasm shown among the girls this year.

The team is lighter than usual, but their speed more than makes up for it.

We have several good games al-ready scheduled. The games with Tecumseh, Lansing and Flint, are certain to be exciting. The first game is with Plymouth, Dec. 20.

Both Boy's and Girl's teams play at that time. Come on Birmingham! Help support your team.

Mrs. E. L. Bailey of Hamilton avenue, entertained a number of friends at a luncheon Wednesday in honor of her niece, Mrs. George Ruby of Pontiac.

Feeds on Seeds.
The handsome red-winged blackbird nests among the bushes or reeds of swampy land, says Nature Magazine. It feeds on insects and the seeds of weeds. The goldfinch, a trim, sociable little bird, feeds on many kinds of seeds.

Language to Fit.
An ornithologist states that birds have accents according to the part of the country they are found in. The remarks of a Baltimore parrot, which recently got tangled in a wireless aerial, seem to bear this out—London opinion.

IF you are as particular about the QUALITY of CANNED FRUITS as we are— you may always be sure of getting them at their best

And why shouldn't you be?

You serve them! You and your family must eat them.

Certainly there's no use trying unknown brands—when we are so particular about DEL MONTE.

The secret of buying canned fruits is to know the brand you want—then see that you get that brand.

When you buy DEL MONTE, you buy something more than just "canned fruits"—you buy an assurance of quality and satisfaction ensured by over 60 years' experience in the canning of fine fruits.

This is the season when fruits are doubly necessary in every meal. Serve them often now! Not only for their fine flavor and variety—but for the healthful balance that they lend to the diet, especially during the cold weather months.

Is your pantry stocked? Check it over! Select the varieties you need—then see us—and order by the dozen cans—to ensure an adequate well-rounded supply.

You owe it to yourself—you owe it to your family—to be as particular in the selection of quality in canned fruits as we are in the selection of our brands.
