THE high, thick, sharp-edged blocks of the Good-year All-Weather Tread keep the maximum traction and safety under your car every foot of the way. They resist skidding and skidding, help make the most of fuel, and protect your motor from the strain of stalling or spinning wheels.

High-class vaudeville bills of 2000 feet will also be given in addition to the above film features.

A film version of Elmer Glyn's romantic story "Six Days" is the attraction for today and tomorrow with a great cast of vaudeville. Saturday matinee for children tomorrow at 2:30 P. M.

At the I. O. O. F. Temple tomorrow night, William Russell, Fox star will be seen in "Boston Blackie".

Husky, capable as an actor, Russell has been well cast in the title role. The story deals with prison reform, denouncing the sort of punishment practiced in some jails. There are numerous incidents that hold the spectators gripped by their dramatic tension. Above everything else the human appeal of the film stood out and it is this element which, more than any other, makes the picture popular.

The production has a good share of romance centered about Eva Novak, whose performance was more than satisfactory. Those who want a pleasant evening of entertainment will find it in "Boston Blackie" at the I. O. O. F. Temple on the 6th street.

Theatres

At The Baldwin.

That theatre-goers of this vicinity and patrons of the popular Baldwin Theatre are quick to appreciate the main line attractions that have been showing there has been attested to by the big crowds that have thronged the beautiful theatre ever since the present policy of Vaudeville and high-class motion pictures was inaugurated some two months ago.

Next week's attractions are no exception to the rule set by the management in endeavoring to give the theatre-goers here nothing but the very best in both classes of amusement. Among the features booked for next week is "The Steadfast Heart," which will be shown on Sunday only.

This is a story of the North Woods and abounds in thrills and tense situations besides carrying thru it a beautiful love story. For Monday Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 12th, 13th and 14th, a film version of Brete Hart's famous story, "Jane" will be the main attraction.

Most everyone is familiar with this story of the "days of '49" and with the leading role, should be met with record crowds at all performances.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week, Zane Grey's immortal story of the Great West "To The Last Man" will be featured. "This Last Man" is a story of a cowboy from his ram at the Madison Theatre down town where it played to capacity for two weeks.

It was personally directed and supervised by Zane Grey himself and has been chosen as one of the season's outstanding hits.

High-class vaudeville bills of 2000 feet will also be given in addition to the above film features.

TIMES CHANGE
PRICES OF CARSCLOSED MODEL TODAY COSTS
LESS THAN 1920 TOURING,
SAYS BOUGHNER

So far have automobile prices declined since the peak of 1920, and so far have construction methods improved that in a surprising number of instances it is now possible to buy a five-passenger closed car for less money than a six-passenger touring car of the same make and seating capacity cost at that time.

While touring car prices have declined from 20 to 40 per cent during the past three years, the development in closed body construction has been even more influential in reducing the cost to the consumer of the closed product.

Forty Per Cent Lower. An outstanding example is that of the Hudson coach. This represents a reduction of more than 40 per cent as between the open car price then and the closed car price now. Another comparison made on the same basis shows Essex at about 40 per cent.

It won't be long before the regular run of cars will be enclosed. That sort of policy is closed car action, not just talk. The Hudson and Essex coaches, which were the first enclosed cars in the world to sell at practically an open car price, are now at the very top of their popularity.

The Hudson factory is now turning out Super-Sixes faster than ever before in its history, and nine out of every ten of them are enclosed. That sort of policy is closed car action, not just talk. The Hudson and Essex coaches, which were the first enclosed cars in the world to sell at practically an open car price, are now at the very top of their popularity.

Mr. Purves has been associated with the automobile industry for the past fifteen years. He held important positions with the Ford Motor Corporation, and he is considered one of the most successful sales executives in the industry. He is now to the already strong personnel of the Gray Motor Corporation will undoubtedly be felt in the future success of this organization.

Gray Motor's rise in the industry to a position of leadership in the brief space of a year has been one of the sensations of recent years.

Public acceptance of the Gray car has grown with such rapid strides in the last few months that officials are at present working out plans for factory additions which will make it possible to double its present production.
