Perhaps the most interesting item on our calendar for the near-future is the Hallowe'en Party and Dance on Saturday, October 27. We want to include all ages in this affair, and so from 7 to 8 p. m. the Chamber of Delight and Horrors will be open, and dancing will begin at 8. We shall be glad to welcome everybody, and there will be no charge except for cider and doughnuts. All boys and girls between the ages of 16 and 21 can discover their future fates by consulting the Mirror, and there will be other stunts a-plenty—so plan to come!

As for the Day Nursery,—well, it rather speaks for itself. We are, of course, starting out in a rather limited way, but we can see it enlarging as time goes on, and as there arises, perhaps, a more widespread need, we hope to grow to meet it. At present, the Day Nursery, under Mrs. Peter Hilty's charge, provides on Thursday afternoons, a place where mothers may leave their children between the ages of two and five, and may feel that they will be well cared for. As we have felt it a necessary precaution to take to safeguard each child, the school nurse will be here at one-thirty and again at three-thirty to admit the children, and we hope that having two times for admission will make it more convenient for the mothers. It provides at least one opportunity of change for them both. So get in the habit of seizing your opportunities, for even this one knocks at your door only once a week.

A meeting was held on Wednesday afternoon, October 17, at the House to form three new Camp Fire groups. The guardians for the new groups are Misses Betty H. Harris, Margaret Bell, and Marjory Walker.

Mrs. George Hendrie is in charge of the Sunday Afternoon programs at the House. A meeting was held last Sunday, and plans were discussed for the winter.

A Fashion Show is to be given on November 7th for the benefit of the House, at the Baldwin High School. Mrs. Mabel Claire Miles is directing the performances and rehearsals have already begun. Among the girls taking part are the Misses Frances Shaw, Barbara Thompson, Margaret Bell, Dorothy Holznagel, Betty Harris, Ella Barbour, Margaret Young, Margaret Phillips Standirt, Eleanor Mack, Marion Peters, Marjory Mack, and Margaret Donnelly.

The first Business Girls' club meeting was held on Tuesday, Oct. 16th. There were fourteen members present, and the general organization was discussed. It was definitely decided to hold a luncheon meeting every Tuesday from twelve to one o'clock, the fourth meeting of each month to take the form of an evening entertainment the preceding Monday night. We feel sure that in spite of the large number present the first time, there must be some girls whom we were unable for one reason or another to reach, and we would be only too glad to have any one who cares to come, call the House and tell us that they will be with us for our next meeting, October 23rd.

A sewing-class has been formed for ambitious beginners who wish to learn to make clothes, to use patterns and to know how to put the pieces together. There are at present six members, so that to fill our quota, four more may be admitted. There will be eight lessons in the course, from 9:30 to 11 every Wednesday morning from now on. If you are interested, call Miss Dickinson at the House, 785, and she will give you details.

as being an inimitable dialect story teller. Mrs. Alta Wells is a gifted and gracious artist on the piano and saxophone, and also features vocal solos and pianologues.

The Ward Waters Trio includes Ward Waters, Lucile Mallory and Grace McNett and the program provides dramatic sketches, vocal solos and duets, xylophone solos, piano solos, whistling and monologues.

Noah Beilhart's gift is the re-creation of character. Modestly he bills himself as an "entertainer." But he is more for his genius gives life to those whimsical and lovable characters of fiction or drama whom he presents. One comes away from his entertainment feeling he knows much more intimately than before the "Music Master," "Mister Antonio," or "The Hoosier School Master."

B. OF C. MEETING IS POSTPONED

COMMITTEE DECIDES TO DELAY AFFAIR UNTIL RETURN OF J. H. SHERIDAN

The previously scheduled meeting of Birmingham business and professional men for Tuesday evening at the Johnston-Shaw Hall was called off because of an incompleted program for the evening. At this meeting discussions were to be held relative to advertising Birmingham in Detroit newspapers, as well as formulating plans for the formation of a local Board of Commerce.

Members of the committee appointed to assist in raising funds to be used in advertising the town decided that the meeting should be postponed until J. H. Sheridan, chairman, returned from a hunting trip, since he has certain information now unknown to his committee, and which should be made public.

THE YPSI GAME

This Friday is going to be a big day for some of us. For four weeks, the football fans have followed their ball team up and down the field with cheers and groans. Four times, the Birmingham football team has gone down to defeat, either from overwhelming odds or from disastrous fumbles and poor headwork.

This Friday is the dawning of a new day. The team has had four weeks of practice and they are out to show their school that they deserve all cheers and no groans. Any chance visitor, coming down to Barnum field about six-thirty might think that Birmingham was trying to become an All-American team. Coach Van Winkle has stuck with his crew of seven regulars until they are rounding out into full fledged football players.

It behooves the student of B. H. S., as loyal members of the school, to go with the team to Ypsilanti this Friday and to back them up, on the sidelines.

And gang, when you get there—don't stand idly talk about your fall hat, or the show at the Madison theatre—get together and yell! Let Ypsi know that you've come to help your team!

Let's all go—it will cheer the team as no pep-meeting could possible do. It shows the boys that you are behind them—Mind, body, and spirit.

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

Assembly was held for the second time, in the Senior Session Room, at the end of the first period, Friday October 12. Two weeks previous the Seniors inaugurated the chapel exercises, being ably led by Chairman Rollins Smith, in the first Assembly of the year. This time, however, the Juniors took over the reins of government and, under their management, the program was carried out exceptionally well.

Chester Kelly, the chairman for the Juniors, began the program by calling for the song "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." It was followed by the Scripture reading. Loyal Campbell read the Scripture. Clarence Vliet Junior, gave an interesting talk on Columbus, his difficulties in getting money, and his subsequent discovery of America. Miss Reh was most kind in consenting to play for the assembly. Her music was Art with a capital A, and she held everyone under a spell as she played the encore. Dorothy Beck next favored the Assembly with a reading in which she depicted the arrival of a rural mother in the city for the first time, whose son has bought a flat in a downtown apartment house.

The Juniors were quite fortunate in getting Mr. Piper to render a cornet solo. Mr. Piper has charge of the musical program of the Methodist Church in connection with the revivalist meetings being held there. He gave, as his selection, "Ave Maria."

Mr. Vliet followed Mr. Piper's solo by a short talk to the students, in which, he pointed out the race that the students of B. H. S. are running and he told of the number who had fallen by the wayside, from sickness or inability to stick till the finish.

Mr. Van Winkle made an announcement concerning football and the meeting was then trusted over to Fenton Westerby for a few cheers.

Assembly was closed by singing, as the closing son, "The Star Spangled Banner."

BIRMINGHAM, THE VICTIM OF BAD LUCK

How near may one come to success and yet fail? The Birmingham football team gave a graphic answer Friday afternoon when they allowed the proverbial "golden opportunity" to slip through their outstretched hands on Barnum field, last Friday. On the visitors 1 yard line with fourth down and goal to go they elected to try a quarterback sneak. A sneak play usually implies deception—but sturdy Northville was not deceived and their goal remained uncrossed.

Late in the first quarter, a pretty crisscross forward pass play followed by a long run, netted the visitors six points of the game. Northville failed in their try for a point.

The game as a whole was very lively and quite exciting. Several times, the rooters on both sides held their breaths as some spectacular play made respiration a matter of secondary importance.

End runs and off tackle plays made most of the gains for the local boys, while the line plunging of the dark jerseyed aggregation was their most effective offensive.

The overhead attack was used sparingly by both sides, since it met with but mediocre success. The one exception was the double pass which resulted in the lone score. It was a fine game, played well by both sides. Birmingham, though slightly outweighted could not be excelled in spirit and fight. Birmingham fans may point with confidence toward the future for the present material coming from lower grades than Seniors seems to justify it.

The best of sportsmanlike conduct was displayed throughout the game as for instance, between the third and last quarters, the visiting waterboy, passed the water to Birmingham first, giving his own team what was left. Needless to say, their irrigation was greatly restricted.

The line-up:

B. H. S.		Northville H. S.

LOCAL CIVIC LEAGUE HEARS CHICAGO WOMAN LECTURE

Monday afternoon, at the second meeting of the women's Civic League, Mrs. Paul Rittenhouse of the National League of Women Voters, from Chicago, spoke at the Community House, to the members about the work and ambitions of the league.

The Civic League of Birmingham will cooperate with the National League, but will not at present affiliate with it, for the Civic League takes in charity and philanthropy as well as politics. They plan in the very near future to conduct a class in "Know-your-Town-Politics" In addition to its other branches of work.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Symons, of Ann street; and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jones, of Knox street, left Sunday on a hunting trip to Vaughn Lake.
