

Theatres

At The Garrick
Commencing next Sunday night,
October 7th, the Garrick Theatre offers a fast moving and a real and elaborate in environment and to possess musical offerings that will please those who delight in good music, choral singing, and instrumentation of a high order.

"I'll Say She Is" in addition to being speedy, is said to be breezy, to be crowded with sensational dancing episodes, and to show unusual and striking scenes and any number of clever specialties. The big company includes some of the best known farceurs on the musical comedy stage, chief among whom are Herbert, Leonard, Julius H. and Arthur Marx, young men who are from their antics as comedians are thorough musicians, and who in themselves are said to be the whole show. Then too, there are Raymond Marlowe, Holland Baggott, Ledra Stiffler, Lotta Miles, the much photographed Kelly-Springfield girl, and Marcelle Hardis and Florence Hedges, as well as other players of equal importance.

Chief among the dancing contingent are Cecile D'Andrea whose reputation in Europe has been assured and whose work in this country has made them much sought after.

"Man Size" a Fox production starring William Russell, will be shown at the I. O. O. F. Temple tomorrow evening. Those who read the novel of the same name found in it a dramatic strength, a clash of mental and physical forces and a warm appeal created by the love theme. All these interests have been heightened in the screen drama by the rushing, pounding action which has been so convincingly reproduced through the camera lens. The photography adds an artistic setting for the narrative, which holds its interest to the last.

William Russell, broad, smiling, glowing with life, has a most fitting vehicle. He does not overact, yet at all times he is sufficient for the requirements of his part, which he carries off with a strong sweep of confidence. The others in the cast are well chosen for their work. The feminine lead has been entrusted to Alma Bennett, who gives a finely shaded portrayal of character. The scenes are laid in the Canadian Rockies and the well chosen settings are strikingly effective.

The Sunshine comedy "Where There's a Will," with a laugh every second, will be an added attraction.

At The Baldwin
A new juvenile actor, handsome enough to contest the laurels of the long established favorites, is introduced by the Goldwyn company in "Three Wise Fools" which comes to the Baldwin theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. William Haines, selected one year ago by casting director Robert B. McIntyre from thousands of applicants in New York, and who has since been playing small parts and receiving training in cinema technique, has his first big chance as Gordon, the nephew, in the King Vidor screen production of Austin Strong's popular play.

As the juvenile lead, working with such actors as Claude Gillingwater, William H. Crane, and Alvin Francis, of which he takes full advantage. It happens that the girl in New Eleanor Boardman, who came out from New York at the same time and under the same conditions and who has just justified Mr. McIntyre's judgment in leading roles with Mabel Ballin in "Vanity Fair" and in "Souls for Sale."

Five all-star Vaudeville acts will round out the program. For Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week Jack Holt, the much photographed Kelly-Springfield girl, and Marcelle Hardis and Florence Hedges, as well as other players of equal importance.

That the public of Royal Oak and vicinity are more than pleased with the new policy of 5 vaudeville acts and high-class Vaudeville acts being given at the popular Baldwin Theatre has been shown ever since this policy was started. Crowded houses have been the rule at all shows and the patrons of this theatre have been loud in the praise of the programs being offered.

The Ananias Club.
"I know the diamond he gave me is just," confessed the dear girl, "but I am satisfied, for I know he loves me just as much as if it was real and had cost a hundred times as much."

One Stone, Two Rooms.
In Serbia it is the custom to build the partition walls of houses quite thick, and set stones in the walls half way through, so that they do duty as warming two rooms.

Observations of Oldest Inhabitant.
It used to be that you could give old Dobbin his head and he'd take you home, but when you give the ear gas nobody else is liable to take you home—in an ambulance.

Palm Always Busy.
Coconut palms are busy trees, says Nature Magazine, and so useful they can brook no delay, so flowers and fruit in all stages of growth may be seen upon the trees at the same time.

Moving Your Coal

The 24 steam railroads operating in Michigan are already well advanced in their yearly task of bringing in the coal that will keep Michigan warm and working through the winter.

We are better prepared for this job than ever before.

Our repair shops contain only the best work; there is no accumulation of crippled rolling stock. Our construction operations have been purposely pushed to release all equipment for this emergency. For four months we have been accumulating our own coal supplies until they are now at their highest point in history—79% of our entire storage requirements filled.

Best of all, we are swinging into use the record-breaking addition of 175 new locomotives, and 21,344 new freight cars, all bought during 1923. More improvements and additions are planned if you will back us by giving your support.

From the gateways, and the junction points, where we receive your coal, we are promptly carrying it on to you. Unload promptly and release our car for us to use in serving your neighbor's needs.

Are we doing this job as you want it done? We ask your criticism or approval.
