Carolyn Bayne's Column Illustration of a woman and a column.

Dear Miss Bayne: I have no great tragedy to offer you, but I would be glad if you could help me with my small problem...

My dear unhappy girl, indeed I would do it if I loved a man as you undoubtedly love your man? I would marry him and make up my mind that I would let nothing interfere with my happiness...

In conclusion, let me say this: I loved a man so much to marry him. I think I would willingly adopt religion rather than marry a married life ruined by constant discord.

My dear Miss Bayne: I am a young girl nineteen years of age and have been going out quite often since I turned sixteen...

Let no true gardener neglect his garden now if a fine spring and summer showing to be had. Now is the time to plan for the hardy perennials...
