

EXCHANGE CLUB
ELECTS OFFICERS

LOCAL CLUB HOLDS FIRST ELECTION AFTER CHARTER PRESENTATION

In the regular noon meeting of the Exchange Club last Tuesday the election of officers and members of the board of control was the main order of business. The following were elected: President, Charles A. Bingham; vice-president, E. V. Olson; secretary, Robert Moore; treasurer, James S. Hassenberger; members of the board of control, Ralph Moulthrop, Robert Moore, Elmer Long, and Cleveland Moore; and H. George Ford for the short term. The officers also officiated members of the board of control, its charter, and its by-laws, adopted, and it was started on civic work.

Following the luncheon the members of Greater Woodward attended the club held meeting at the Masonic Temple building. Thursday night the Young Men's members of the board of control held a meeting to take action upon a number of important tests.

COMFORT STATION
TO COST $1725
Estimate of Starr

WOULD ERECT BUILDING NEXT TO VILLAGE HALL ON WOODWARD

In the opinion of H. C. Waller, village engineer, the site for the proposed building on South Woodward is well suited for the purpose. Monday night presented plans and estimates for the erection of the building, at an estimated cost of approximately $1725. The matter was laid on the agenda of the next meeting.

DETROIT WOMAN
ADDRESSES P-T. A.

LOCAL R-T. A. ASSOCIATIONS TO MEET AT 7:15 P. M. MAY 10

Under the direction of Miss Myra Grattan, musical director in the Baldwin schools, and assisted by Mrs. H. C. Hart and Miss Kay Parson, "Once in a Blue Moon" concert, will be presented in the Baldwin auditorium on Friday evening, May 10. The story of the concert is the story of a young girl who produces some excellent music.

STUDENTS GIVE 'ONCE IN A BLUE MOON' EVENING

Under the direction of Miss Myra Grattan, musical director in the Baldwin schools, and assisted by Mrs. H. C. Hart and Miss Kay Parson, "Once in a Blue Moon" concert, will be presented in the Baldwin auditorium on Friday evening, May 10.

CAMPBELL CASE LARGEST BEFORE COURT YESTERDAY

The case of John Campbell, manager of the Birdwood Inn, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of violation of the liquor law, was started yesterday afternoon in the circuit court at Pontiac yesterday afternoon.

The case of John Campbell, manager of the Birdwood Inn, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of violation of the liquor law, was started yesterday afternoon in the circuit court at Pontiac yesterday afternoon.

ANNUAL CLEAN-UP DAY

The exact date for the annual cleanup day in Birmingham will be announced in next week's issue of the Birmingham Star and this week that he would have all the plans made then.

LOCAL DOG IS JUDGED BEST SETTER IN U. S. A.

Bloomfield Betty, the little white setter belonging to H. W. Potter of Greenwood avenue, took third place in the Saginaw Field and Stream club's national puppy trials held Tuesday and Wednesday last week.

STAGE UNITATION OF DE MOLAY ORDER

Seventeen Local Boys To Enter Masonic Work Next Tuesday

EXPECT CHARTER SOON

Seventeen applications have already been received for the DeMolay chapter which will have its initiation in the Masonic Temple here Tuesday night. The chapter will have its first meeting next Tuesday.

DRIVE STARTS FOR DRIVE AGAINST WOMEN'S BLDG

APRIL 29 TO MAY 9 DATE SET FOR STUDENT CAMPUS; PRESENT BURTON TO SPEAK

The Knights of Pythias will hold a mass student recruitment drive in the club rooms, where the first clubrooms opened in Birmingham, are to be held on the campus next Monday night.

DRIVE STARTS FOR DRIVE AGAINST WOMEN'S BLDG

APRIL 29 TO MAY 9 DATE SET FOR STUDENT CAMPUS; PRESENT BURTON TO SPEAK

The Knights of Pythias will hold a mass student recruitment drive in the club rooms, where the first clubrooms opened in Birmingham, are to be held on the campus next Monday night.

DRIVE STARTS FOR DRIVE AGAINST WOMEN'S BLDG

APRIL 29 TO MAY 9 DATE SET FOR STUDENT CAMPUS; PRESENT BURTON TO SPEAK

The Knights of Pythias will hold a mass student recruitment drive in the club rooms, where the first clubrooms opened in Birmingham, are to be held on the campus next Monday night.

Survey Ordered On Village Park Land

COMMISSION DIRECTS STARR TO LOCATE BOUNDARY LINES

Steps to determine the boundary lines of village owned property constituting a park system of lands north of Willetts street, and extending to the west line of the D. U. R. property along the River Rouge, were started Monday night at the commission meeting.

MAPLE AVENUE MADE "THROUGH STREETS"

Believing that the creation of Woodward avenue through Birmingham as a "through street" has been given a special township election this fall, members of the village commission Monday night instructed the village manager to write a letter to all other outside property owners, inviting them to petition for annexation at the same time if they so desire.

FRIENDLY FEELING PROMPTS BIRMINGHAM, SAYS Bingham

Inasmuch as several pieces of land adjoining Birmingham will seek annexation, a special township election this fall, members of the village commission Monday night instructed the village manager to write a letter to all other outside property owners, inviting them to petition for annexation at the same time if they so desire.

JUNIOR 'Y' GROUPS TO MEET

Local Youths To Depict Y. M. C. A. Triangle Embroider Tuesday

The Junior "Y" groups are planning to entertain their parents next Tuesday evening in the Baldwin auditorium. The plan is to depict the work the boys have been doing during the winter months.

LOCATE 6TH SITE FOR VILLAGE WELL

Unable to find sufficient water-gauging gravel at the fifth test well along the River Rouge, the village engineers will start a new test well for Birmingham, Wednesday afternoon.

COLLECT OLD PAPERS IN TOWN NEXT WEEK

An effort will be made during the coming week to canvass the entire town for old newspapers, magazines which are to be sold for the benefit of the Baldwin Unit of the P. T. A.

BELL PUTTING UP FOUR STORE BLOCK ON MAPLE

A one-story building containing four store blocks is being completed for S. O. Bell on the south side of the Maple avenue before June 1st. The building is being constructed by the Bell Construction Company.

NEW MEAT MARKET

Announcement is made this week of the new meat market to be located, operated by Walter Alexander of Pontiac, at the corner of South Woodward and the new street to be opened across a large market in Pontiac as well as the Virginia Restaurant.

Announcement is made this week of the new meat market to be located, operated by Walter Alexander of Pontiac, at the corner of South Woodward and the new street to be opened across a large market in Pontiac as well as the Virginia Restaurant.

THE LIBRARY
BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION
PONTIAC ACT IN PONTIAC