

SEVENES APRIL 27H FOR WASHINGTON

First Class Of Local Students Will Start Pilgrimage To Nation's Capital

TO RETURN APRIL 20 Seniors Have Spent Much Time And Effort To Acquire Funds

All reservations are made and all plans and itineraries completed for the Senior Washington Group and their party to leave Saturday noon, April 12. The party will arrive in Washington, their destination, on Sunday when the cherry blossom season is reputed to be at its height and the city will be in the midst of its most beautiful season.

As official chaperons, Clarence Vliet, superintendent of schools, W. C. Potter, professor of mathematics, and Miss Myra Grattan, music teacher, will accompany the group. The group itself includes the following students: Winifred Hunton, Muriel Johnson, Marion Trumbull, Helen Westcott, Jean Thayer, Blanche Priest, art teacher, and her mother, who are in the party.

The entire trip will be under the supervision of E. G. Potter, member of the faculty of the Highland Park High School, who has for years conducted similar groups over the same course. This is the first trip to be made by an organized body from the Birmingham schools in over several years standing in Detroit schools. The class banded together during their sophomore year and diligent work during the past three years, have raised approximately $25,000 for the trip.

The party arrives at Harper's Ferry on Sunday morning where they are to have breakfast in real southern style. From this point every minute of the time is to be spent in order to include all possible worthwhile scenes. Hotel accommodations have been taken care of by Mr. Potter and the students will not be required to be responsible for their own baggage. The advance arrangements have been so complete. During the three-day tour of Washington, the party will arrive Sunday noon, a visit will be made to the White House where it is hoped the President will meet them personally. One day of the trip will include a trip by bus to Arlington, Va., returning by boat to Washington.

After a day's sight-seeing in Baltimore the party will journey to Annapolis, Md., where they will have breakfast in real southern style. From this point every minute of the time is to be spent in order to include all possible worthwhile scenes.

Robert Hegin, giving his address at Flint, and William Phillips of Pontiac were taken before Justice of the Peace Buck Tuesday afternoon on a charge of intoxication after they were picked up by the police just south of Pontiac Monday evening. Hegin paid a fine of $25 and Phillips, being unable to furnish $20, the alternative of going to jail for 10 days.

While under the influence of liquor Joseph Mitchell attacked his wife, Jane, in their home in Big Beaver, Monday evening. A woman and a shotgun were taken to the scene, according to police. Mitchell, a 30-year-old man, was arrested by the Ford Motor Company. Monday evening he came home in an intoxicated condition before 7 o'clock and became angry at his wife over some trifles he attacked her with a shotgun. It is said Mitchell was very drunk and was in a bad temper when he was arrested.

A charge of attempted murder was made against Mitchell and he will be held in the jail until he can furnish bond. Mitchell is a 30-year-old man who has been convicted on several occasions for crimes of violence. He was arrested by the Ford Motor Company on Monday evening.

NOONDAY CLUBS MEET TOGETHER

Following the regular weekly meeting of the Birmingham Rotary Club held Monday noon, during which the club voted to send its president, George B. Averill, on a district convention in Grand Rapids Monday and Tuesday of next week, an invitation was accepted to attend the meeting of the local Exchange Club at the Masonic Temple Tuesday.

At this joint meeting a representative of the General Electric Co. gave a splendid talk on the present on the value of proper lights for store and window lighting, supplementing his remarks with an exhibit of lights in a miniature store window. The talk was made possible through Ralph Bricker, local manager of the Detroit Edison Co.

DOWN 155 FEET NO WATER FOUND YET

The third attempt to sink a well in Birmingham is bringing forth but little encouragement to date. According to Manager Starvo, the 155-foot well being sunk at Lincoln and Southfield avenues, though down 155 feet, has not yet reached the water table. The well is owned by Layne & Bowler Co., under contract to furnish a well delivering 500 gallons of water per minute, to be drilled by the well driller to determine on the next move.

REPRESENTED BY BURTON BARNES SPEAKS ON "HOW MUCH DO WE WANT EDUCATION?"

As an especially interesting feature, Burton Barnes of the education department of the Detroit board of education, was the guest and main speaker of the Adams Unit of the Pontiac chapter of the A. A. W. on Thursday evening.

SEELEY AND STARR TO SPEAK WEDNESDAY

The Birmingham chapter of the A. A. W. will have a very interesting meeting on Wednesday evening. The speakers for the evening will be Seeley and Starr.

Commission Directs McClellan, New Assessor, To Spread Roll

Robert K. McClellan of Harmon avenue, well-known Birmingham business man, was appointed Monday afternoon by the city commission tax raising the assessed valuation of Birmingham property from a little over five million dollars to an amount approximating $7,200,000. This increase in assessment figures will be made by Mr. McClellan when he starts out within the next few days as village assessor, supplanting the late Mr. J. H. McClellan, who was fixed at $600 per year, with additional fees for special assessments.

HAROLD LLOYD IN "WHY WORRY," HERE APRIL 11

Harold Lloyd, the hero of "Safety Last," appears in his gay comedy, "Why Worry," on April 11 in the East End Theatre. This is one of the three pictures which remain to be shown for the benefit of the Student League of the city. The picture is one of the best of the actor's work, and at least three times Harold's size and strength, riots through a revolution of his head, and in the end, overturning walls and stirring up terrible confusion. See "Why Worry?"

FACTORY PRODUCTION FOR DECEMBER, JANUARY AND FEBRUARY

Factory production for December, January and February averaged 34.2 percent over those of the previous year, with a corresponding increase in production for the first six months of 1924. The increase in production for the first six months of 1924 was 34.2 percent over those of the previous year. A Splendid Place To Take The Baby

A new family moved into a few weeks ago, father, mother and William, aged two years and ten months, moved into a new home. They were comfortably settled after a few days, and mother had made the acquaintance of one of her neighbors, who very kindly invited her to a meeting of her bridge club Wednesday afternoon. She was pleased to accept, but then she was Billy, her young son, who she had to take with her. There was no reliable person she knew of who would come to care for him all day long. Calling on her neighbor to explain her difficulty, she obtained some welcome information.
