SUPPORT THE COMMUNITY HOUSE

Anything that provides useful educational and recreational activity for one person or an entire community should be the kind of a thing that heads for Birmingham. There is an institution in Birmingham that is known as the Community House, founded for the specific purpose, we are told, of enlightening the minds of the adults who take advantage of its offerings. This Community House has just passed through its first year. It has been supported by the labors of a few people. The time has arrived when the entire community is asked to pledge its support to the carrying out of another year of its life.

THOUGHTS ARE LIKE TREES

A good many years ago God, dispenser of all good things on earth, caused the seed of a Redwood tree to be planted near Portland, Oregon. Recently this tree, grown to full manhood, was felled. When finally hauled away from a saw mill, it was found that this one tree had yielded enough lumber to build fifty ordinary five-room bungalows. Allowing but four people to a family, this one tree alone has proved itself capable of providing shelter for 200 human beings. Thoughts, those little seeds that God sometimes plants in the minds of his children, often prove a haven of shelter to millions of people.

SO MUCH FOR DESTRUCTION

Last Saturday, March 29, the House of Representatives at Washington, D. C., passed a bill authorizing the 1924-25 war department appropriation bill carrying a total of $327,274,998.00. All of this money will be used for nothing but the creation and carrying out of various agencies for the destruction of mankind. Isn't that sweet of so-called modern civilization? Of course, in a country as large as the United States, that only means about three dollars for every man, woman and child to donate.

IT IS OUR GOVERNMENT.

A man or a woman has but one life to live while on this earth. The sum total of what he or she amounts to is shown in the kind of life that is led; in the number of friends, not dollars; little acts of kindness count more on the Great Ledger than the gift of some man's millions. Who we live far removed from Washington, D. C., and who watch the daily reports concerning what the men in control of our nation are doing or have done, need not worry about the ultimate outcome. The investigation now going on is merely necessary because we, as citizens of the United States, need to be awakened to our laxity in public affairs. The majority will always rule—if they attend the polls. Let us be constantly reminded that it is OUR government; it is, after all, just what WE make it.

FINDING CONTENTMENT

Nearly everyday there appears upon our village streets a new face, one that we've never seen before; as the days roll along we see the face again and finally come to realize that the face belongs to a new resident of Birmingham. Somehow or other the face seems to wear a look of contentment; the owner of it seems to have found in Birmingham a "certain something" that was not obtainable in Detroit, or whatever place he came from. This is a truly wonderful thing. There is something that stamps Birmingham out from the rest of its neighboring communities; it is perhaps as undefinable as life itself, but whatever it is, it should be safeguarded as a most precious possession.

LOCAL LITERARY TALENT

That there is a good deal of literary talent in Birmingham and vicinity is evidenced from the number of manuscripts received by the Eccentric from time to time. Last week we published two poems, one by Mrs. Beatrice McDonald, who lives southwest of Birmingham, and another from Grace Kneeland Eldred, of Glenrock, Wyoming. Both are regular subscribers to the Eccentric. This newspaper is pleased to receive contributions and will be equally pleased to publish them.

Nearly a year ago the people of this school district were told by the school board that a plan was being evolved to purchase a number of sites upon which buildings might be erected; the object being to get the land now available at the price was low. To date nothing has been made known of the plan, which is a good one. Certainly the taxpayers will welcome any plan which shows good business judgment.

I WANT TO LIVE

I want to live in such a way that when I'm dead someone will say, "He was a friend to me in need, and all I wanted was some kindly deed. That's been my privilege to do, while in this world I'm passing through."

I want to live a life so square. And treat my fellowmen so fair. That all I'm constrained to see, The Golden Rule fulfilled in me. And may each kindly, generous deed. Some sin-sick soul to Jesus lead.

I want to live and bear in mind The record I should leave behind. That every act of mine may prove The merits of my Saviour's love. Then all the praise to Christ I'll give, For it's for Him I want to live.

—George W. Lehman, Pontiac, Mich.

WHEN LEAVES ARE BROWN

(By Beatrice McDonald)
When leaves are brown and falling down, And winter's drawing nigh, Of summer days and bluebird lays I think, and heave a sigh.

The ice and snow will come I know With cold and blustering winds, But what care I for darkening sky, Behind my close drawn blinds.

The sun and rain I'll know again, I'll see the birds and flowers, As with a look in every nook I while the winter hours.

FROM THE CENTRIC COLUMNS of Long Ago

Just Bits of News Chopped From Old Files of The Eccentric—The Items That Made Up the Historical Background of the Birmingham of Today

45 Years Ago. Sam M. Crumb is soon to go on the road with a wagon loaded with Yankee Notions.

Frank Howland again occupies his old position as chief clerk for James O. Beattie, auctioneer, vice Warner resigned.

Mitchell only came out 18 jumps behind for town clerk and accounts for it because Whitehead's limbs are the longer.

There was considerable interest manifested in the election returns on Monday night. Eugene Carr drove his Jerusalem pony in town to hear the news.

Married March 30 by J. P. Gibson at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Todd, Charles Moore and Miss Maggie Todd. Charlie and his bride have commenced house-keeping on the farm. They receive many useful and beautiful presents. A pleasant evening was spent by all, a bounteous feast was served by John M. Rainey (Maggie and Charlie) a happy life.

Miss Frankie Gibbs, of Troy, daughter of G. C. Gibbs, will teach the Cuban school. Her diploma was passed a very creditable examination and was complimented by the school superintendent.

A free and easy reading room is talked of in the Eccentric building where they will raise the necessary sum to rent the room now occupied by Sam M. Crumb with the hope of making a room for general resort, checkers, reading and perhaps old slide.

Robert Crombie and family moved to Ypsilanti on Wednesday last where they will reside, giving Miss Minnie and Master Louis the advantage of an education at the Ypsilanti school. Our best wishes go with this family for their future welfare and the whole neighborhood regret their moving.

We ask our readers to be lenient with us in this connection, but the scarcity of local news and any omission or errors which may occur in our columns. We have not had a state of uproar and confusion for the past week subsequent to moving into our new quarters. We are now located in our new office in the new store on the South side of Saginaw street formerly occupied by J. & M. Lowes where we will soon be able to see all our friends and welcome them.

An ode upon that fresh and uncommon subject "Beauty" appears in another column from the ready pen of our valued subscriber, A. H. Lett of Franklin.

Otto Bergert and George S. Lee of Frankfort, Michigan, and a local political argument on Monday last and in the interchange of compliments incidental to such conversation Otto called George A rebel and was promptly called a liar as the English language would permit. Otto then upon got in a right hander on George's jaw and which sent him first to the ground and subsequently to Justice Bodine, who issued a warrant and Otto was arrested by D. S. Beattie and pleading guilty was fined $10.

The sugar party at Red Ribbon Hall last Friday night was a grand success. A goodly number of the young people enjoyed themselves hugely.

About 11:30 Tuesday night the crew of the electric line returned from Pontiac discovered a fire and hastened in the direction of the plant. The second of the conflagration was George Brady's farm. Description the heroic efforts of the D. F. employees and other to remove the horses and cattle from the burning building the barn with all its contents was completely destroyed.

Electric cars are running every half hour now, much to the satisfaction of all.

The new structure erected by C. H. Schlaack and Company to be used for a hardware store has been opened for occupancy and has been pronounced by various traveling men the finest building in design and in-

WE HEARD IT SAID BY

(Littie Editorials picked up by the Staff and around Birmingham.)

Mrs. Henry Riley Fuller, of "The Chaire" at North Woodward avenue, has had a most successful musical entertainment at the St. James Church last Sunday evening. Many from the standpoint of technical and real melody, a work of art. In my opinion, it is one of the finest musical productions ever presented in Birmingham. Each of the men had a born talent for music and the ladies seemed to sense the love the singers had for their work. It was a pleasure to bring them here at some future time so that more people will be able to hear such exceptional choruses.

Mrs. John H. Marlette, of Pierce street, has had a high level of approval among the committee that have visited the County Poor Farm. The entire town will be canvassed by members of the Woman's Literary Club. The proposition of a one-half cent stamp of this will be voted on Monday and it is the aim of the members of the Literary Society to reach every house in town and their voters with the problem so that the bill may be carried. A street is assigned to each member of the club who will talk to each family on the subject and bring out the voters' opinion of the Poor House.

Rev. Dr. Spoor, director of the Foreign Born, speaking at St. James' Church Sunday. The immigrants who are coming to our country from southern and eastern Europe, bring with them a heritage of language and custom very different from our own Nordic traditions. There is much we can learn from them in the way of art and culture if we will tear down the barriers we put up before them.

Rev. C. M. Thompson: "The young people who have had a high level of training and even a college education seem to me to be lacking in manners and responsibility. I think these qualities are lacking in fundamental respects. The young people acquire a great deal of book learning, but it does not help them to take responsibility and make their way in the world."

Miss Marjorie Allen, librarian of the Birmingham Public Library: "People in Birmingham prefer to read serious books rather than more sophisticated or witty works of such writers as Bernard Shaw and Aldous Huxley."

Joseph McGregor, Commander of the local American Legion Post: "A great many men, when appointed to serve on public committees or on those of clubs they belong to, accept the position, but show no responsibility about carrying out the work. This badly affects the work of public and private organizations very seriously."

Clarence Viet, superintendent of Detroit: "The Board of Education has secured an expert engineer, from Detroit to make an independent report on the test by the students of the Baldwin High School. The contractors and architects will also have yet been set for the test because the report is not quite dry yet."

Robert W. Wasey, of Walsh, James & Wasey, Washburn, Mich.: "We are already feeling the results of advertising under Woodward avenue. Many Detroiters have purchased building lots in and around Birmingham within the past two weeks. $525 promises to be an amazing year of growth in Oakland county. I dare say that few local people can correctly vision the real part of a wider Woodward avenue and the almost marvellous change it will make in property values. Detroit, long aware of the beauty of Oakland county, will now find nothing to prevent thousands of representatives to make their homes in this vicinity."
