

Three Local Girls at Top in College

Three local girls, two of whom are graduates of the Birmingham high school, have been singled out recently for their talent in dramatic lines.

Six Per Cent Mortgage Loans. WE are now prepared to make mortgage loans at six per cent per annum upon improved property in Birmingham.

Maudie Gates, Employed On Eccentric Years Ago, Died In Detroit March 19

Miss Maud Gates, formerly of Birmingham, died of pneumonia, on Wednesday afternoon at 19, at the home of Mrs. Jesse Painter, of Northwestern avenue, Detroit.

Gates applied for work in the paper it was thought that there was so little to be done there that she was not needed, but it was finally decided to employ her.

After five years with the newspaper, during which time she also worked in Pontiac, Miss Gates moved back to Birmingham and joined the business until the time of her death.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK. A Bank For the People. MEREL PARKS. "Resolved, That the United States should adopt further restriction on immigration."

Residents of Birmingham will remember Miss Gates as one of the early members of the Eccentric staff twenty or thirty years ago.

Charming Musical Given Here Tuesday. The Westminster Guild presented a charming musical program on Tuesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church when violinist, Mrs. E. J. Taylor and Mrs. Arthur Peck.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK. A Bank For the People. MEREL PARKS. "Resolved, That the United States should adopt further restriction on immigration."

Mrs. Henry Herr of Pierce street returned on Sunday of this week after a trip in the south which has lasted since the first of January.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church at its annual meeting in March appointed officers for the coming year and formulated a program for the future whereby the home missionary work will be emphasized.

SPRAYING LET US DO YOUR SPRAYING DORMANT AND SUMMER SPRAYS No Job Too Large or Small

Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion held its regular monthly business meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. Manchester of North Woodward avenue.

George E. Daines, who has been in Orlando, Fla., since December, returned to his home at East Maple avenue last Wednesday.

OLIN BROTHERS TREE SURGEONS Box 232 Phone 135-J

Miss Mary Wallace, daughter of the Secretary of the Washington, D. C., to spend the week with her sister, Mrs. Albert Frank.

Miss Mary Jeffers, instructor in play production at Highland Park high school, will be the speaker at the hour at an open meeting of the Woman's Literary Club at the Community House on Tuesday afternoon.

A Free Lecture on Christian Science BY JUDGE SAMUEL W. GREENE, C. S., of Louisville, Kentucky

"Plays of the Hour" Will Be Subject At Literary Meeting. Miss Mary Jeffers, instructor in play production at Highland Park high school, will be the speaker at the hour at an open meeting of the Woman's Literary Club at the Community House on Tuesday afternoon.

WESTMINSTER GUILD ELECTS NEW OFFICERS. The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church at its annual meeting in March appointed officers for the coming year and formulated a program for the future whereby the home missionary work will be emphasized.

Sunday Afternoon, April 6, 1924 Baldwin High School Auditorium Maple Avenue West (Three Blocks from Woodward)

Miss Winnifred St. John of Detroit spent the week-end with Miss Norma Berger, Mrs. W. H. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Park street.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

HOUSEWIVES OF BIRMINGHAM! DO NOT READ THIS AD. HERE ARE NINE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD INSIST ON THE MILK PRODUCTS OF THE Mich. Dairy and Farm Produce Co.

Mrs. Robert Allen of Park street entertained her mother, Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. Clarence Hays of Detroit, for Sunday dinner.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

HOUSEWIVES OF BIRMINGHAM! DO NOT READ THIS AD. HERE ARE NINE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD INSIST ON THE MILK PRODUCTS OF THE Mich. Dairy and Farm Produce Co.

Mrs. Edward Barden of Oakland avenue entertained Mrs. William T. Murphy of Erie, Pa., Mrs. Murphy arrived on Thursday.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. R. B. Appell of Elm street is being visited by her daughter, Mrs. Edna Appell, who is in Birmingham on a visit of three weeks, and will also visit her brother, Edward Appell, on Henrietta street.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. Gordon Bailey of George street, since the death of her husband, Mrs. Bailey will return to Mackinaw, Mich.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. F. J. Bailey of Longview avenue. Mrs. W. H. Bassett of Pierce street is entertaining her niece, Miss Florence McKinney of Pellant Normal school, who is in Birmingham on a visit of three weeks.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. H. R. Bayles of East Maple avenue is expected back in Birmingham tomorrow.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. H. R. Bayles of East Maple avenue is expected back in Birmingham tomorrow.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. H. R. Bayles of East Maple avenue is expected back in Birmingham tomorrow.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. H. R. Bayles of East Maple avenue is expected back in Birmingham tomorrow.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. H. R. Bayles of East Maple avenue is expected back in Birmingham tomorrow.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.

Mrs. H. R. Bayles of East Maple avenue is expected back in Birmingham tomorrow.

During the past year, the Westminster Guild has been successful in raising $1,000 for the purchase of a new building for the church.