

Library Adds Three New Publications For Local Patrons

Board Announces Intention of Giving New Views on World Topics

At the August meeting of the Library Board it was decided to add to the list of weekly publications on file at the Baldwin Library three of the following: The Manchester Guardian, a well known weekly review of European and American politics, independent in thought, being untrammelled through control by the powerful British publishing syndicates; The Springfield (Massachusetts) Republican, one of America's most pungent weekly reviews, and The New Republic, a well known weekly of the wholesomely radical type.

ALLEN TALKS AT LOCAL ROTARY LUNCHEON MONDAY

Luther D. Allen, Republican candidate for Oakland County Road Commissioner at the September 9th primaries, was one of the guests Monday at the weekly meeting of the Birmingham Rotary club. Mr. Allen discussed the question of good roads and township assessments. He also answered many questions relative to county matters in general. F. S. Buck, local Justice of the Peace, and Harry Farwell, of the Highland Park Rotary club, were also guests.

Lucas Hascall, member of the local club, gave an interesting account of a recent motor trip which he and his family took through northern Michigan.

Heat in Ice

To the touch ice always conveys the sensation of extreme cold, but by the thermometer it can be shown to vary in having more or less heat, like other bodies.

"JIMMIE" TELLS OF CAMP BOYVILLE

Camp Boyville, Elizabeth Lake, August 13, 1924.

Dear Mr. Averill: I want to tell you about the high time we're having at camp and also how much I enjoyed your talk at the Campfires the other night. Tell Mr. Howarth we liked his talk too. I think I'm pretty honest now, but, as you said, I suppose there's a chance to be even honest.

Chinese Proverb

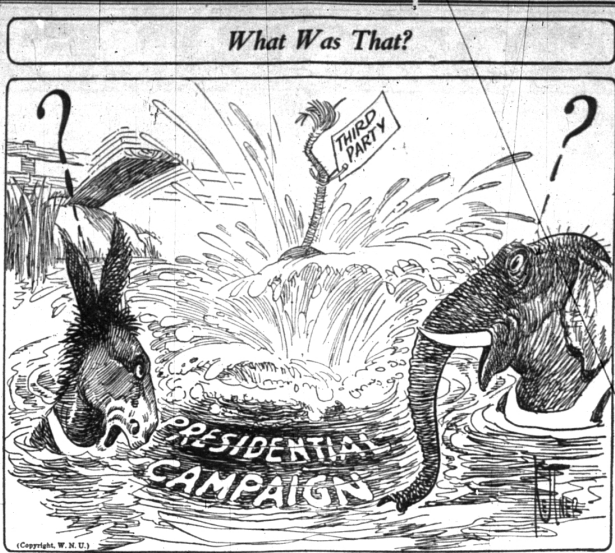

It is easy to open a shop, but hard to keep it open.

Yours, JIMMIE.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Carter of Galt, Ontario, Canada, are guests this week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Urban Myer of Merrill street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan returned Monday to their home on Harmon street after a motor trip through New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan, who went with them, remained with relatives in New York.

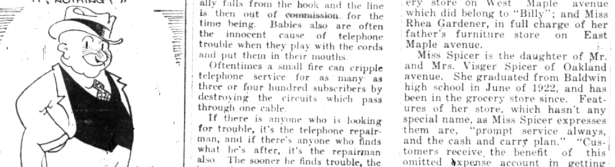

DOES IT PAY?

Does it pay to use the "Classified Ad" column of the Birmingham Eccentric? It certainly does—for proof of it just call Mrs. Noble Gravin, 215 Merrill street.

On June 20 the following advertisement appeared in the Eccentric: "Will call for washing and ironing; best of work. Mrs. F. Gravin, 415 Merrill street."

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

Discovery of Oxygen

The American Chemical Society says that Joseph Priestley, an Englishman who came to America in 1793, discovered not only oxygen, but also ammonia, hydrogen chloride, sulphur dioxide and nitrous oxide.

Marshmallows

The marshmallow is a plant growing in marshes. It is perennial and has a white, fleshy, root-shaped root, which is used for food purposes.

Tuckahoe a Puzzle

A queer vegetable found in the southern seaboard states of the United States is the tuckahoe. It grows underground, somewhat like the European truffe.

Didn't Wear Out Welcome

"I called at the Munniwells' today," said Snobb. "Stylish people they are, home splendidly furnished, and they were very gracious and asked me to call again."

What Makes a Gentleman?

It has been said that the true gentleman is aptly described in the fifteenth Psalm: "He that waiteth upon the Lord, he shall not be moved."

RATS AND MICE DEADLY FOES OF THE TELEPHONE

Playful Puppies and Inquisitive Babies Are Also Frequent Causes of Trouble

For mice and rats telephone repairmen have a particular aversion. Not only are they the cause of a large proportion of the cases requiring expert attention, but they are apt to be the most difficult for the "trouble-shooters" to handle.

Two Local Girls Run Businesses

One hears much of the independence of women these days. They of the fair sex who make a place for themselves in the world of business are still the envy of their feminine friends, but no longer the pioneers.

Don't Waste Cigars Chew BEECH-NUT Chewing Tobacco between smokes. Keep it in your desk-drawer and club locker. Put a package in your pocket when you go to the show or movies, or start for a ride. Admitted and welcomed where pipes and cigarettes can't enter. A healthy, pleasant and economical habit. Preserves the teeth; aids digestion. Quiets nerves and sharpens wits—watch big executives when they go into action. Steadies the ball-player's bat and the golfer's club—watch the winners. Stimulates good work and clear thinking. Keeps "that tired feeling" off the construction job and factory floor. Lawyers, prohibited from using other forms of tobacco, can't stand the grueling grind of a long trial without a chew of BEECH-NUT. First aid to efficiency everywhere—and costs so little. 10c is still worth the same quantity and quality of BEECH-NUT that made it the biggest selling brand in the world. 250 million packages sold in a single year.
