Barn Dance Proves Gala Event As 150 Couples Respond

Affair Staged By National Woman's Party Tuesday Evening

Beneath a long yellow banner floating from the rafters in the center of the hall, with a sea of small purple, white, and gold banners surrounding it, more than 150 couples...

Gay brackets of golden glow arranged in profusion about background of sunflowers on full stocks...

While the first strains of "Memory" came wafting down from the balcony where Steader's orchestra sat, at nine it was ten o'clock...

The first dancers to arrive in a group were the young Misses, the affair might prove unsuccessful.

After a supper spent at Brown's Camp in Maize, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Uter returned to their home on the Southside Saturday morning by motor...

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harkreaves of Bloomfield Hills, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dixon of the Pine Road will leave today for the east...

The League of St. James Women will meet at their home on the Southside at eleven o'clock on Wednesday...

A reading of the marriage certificate of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mitchell of Brown street was held at the home of Mrs. T. R. Donovan...

Norman S. Atcheson and his son, Douglas, left for their home in Hollywood, California, on Thursday...

Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Cox entertained as guest of honor at the Country Club on Saturday afternoon...

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Deer and daughter, Margaret Ruth, recently returned to their homes on Forest avenue...

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. M. Knight and sons, James and George, left their summer home on Lake Chautauque...

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Wendt and daughter, Barbara Ruth, were accompanied by John Vernon...
