Music to the Tune of Prosperity

"Busy-ness" in the building industry means prosperity to the community. New buildings indicate, not only that the owners of those buildings are prospering, but that many other people employed in the construction of those buildings, and handling, selling and manufacturing the materials that are used in the construction of those new buildings, are busy and thus prosperous.

Our lumber yard and offices have become

A Public Institution

We consistently endeavor to give this community the most modern, conveniently arranged, economical homes and have always been interested in its general prosperity in this way, so that we are now recognized as the center of reliable building information. Our years of experience as well as our library of home plans and suggestions, is at your service. Use them.

Drop in and get our latest "BOOK OF HOME PLANS." We'll be glad to see you.

Theatres

Next Week's Attractions
At The Baldwin Theatre.

Madge Kennedy, the bright and vivacious stage and screen star will be the featured player on the photo-play program at the Baldwin Theatre Sunday. Miss Kennedy appears in a romantic drama of the sea entitled "Three Miles Out." The main theme of the picture deals with the rum-running bands who infest the broad Atlantic Ocean. The regular Pathe News, a comedy with the "Our Gang" favorites in it will complete the bill.

Next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 11-12-13th, Agnes Ayres and Antonio Moreno will be co-starred in a Paramount production "Bluff." This is a story of a small town girl who bluffed her way through New York society and won fame and happiness in doing so. Other features on the bill will be the Pathe News of Current Events and "All At Sea", a special standard comedy.

For the last three days of the week, Aug. 14-15-16th, Miss Dorothy Dalton and a Paramount wonder cast will be seen in "The Moral Sinner," a story of Paris upper and lower society. The Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a comedy will complete the bill.

Jacqueline Logan in "The Code Of the Sea" will be seen for the last times tonight and tomorrow.

Sunday night, Aug. 17th will mark the closing date of the Baldwin Theatre for two weeks at which time the entire house will undergo extensive repairs, alterations and redecorating. The opening has been set for Sunday, August 31st, when the theatre will again return to the popular form of amusement of a combination of high-class Vaudeville and Motion pictures, for the season. Five big bathing girl acts will be presented with the best in features. All the biggest and best have already been contracted for and the very best acts in Vaudeville have also been contracted for. Patrons of the Baldwin will be assured of nothing but the very highest class amusement at this popular theatre next season.

New Kind Of Play Next Week
At The Garrick Theatre.

Miss Bonstelle will make her second new production of the current season at the Garrick next week, offering a new play owned by A. H. Woods, from the pen of Martin Brown. Mr. Woods contemplates starring Miss Ann Harding in this piece next season.

Plastic surgery, as developed during the war, evidently gave the author the idea for his theme. The play belongs in the mush class, for in it the author steps into the realm of science, home life and dope. A gang of crooks plan a robbery in the home of a famous surgeon, but they are surprised by the owner in the act. The two men make their escape, but the girl is apprehended. She tells her life history to the surgeon, a story of bitterness on account of her ugliness. The surgeon volunteers to make her beautiful through the science of plastic surgery.

The play should afford Miss Harding a splendid opportunity for her emotional ability, while Minor Watson plays a young millionaire who has carefully avoided work until he becomes interested in the ferreting out of crime. It is a powerful story, its love interest deep-grained and its characters varied and clear-cut, affording distinct opportunities for the Bonstelle players.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

(Little Editorials picked up by the Staff in and around Birmingham.)

George Scott, of Argus street: "After talking with a great many local citizens about the matter of collecting garbage and paying for it from the village treasury, I don't believe that, if the proposition were put to a vote, a dozen local people would favor it. I have collected Birmingham's garbage at a small fee for many years; of course I have found kickers—but most of the townspeople find that I am pretty regular in removing their garbage."

T. D. Lynch, of Frank street: "I think that the collection of garbage should be paid for by general village taxation. Lots of people do not have Mr. Scott collect their garbage because they are not compelled to, consequently they burn it or bury it, and there always is an odor accompanying such disposal. The municipal collection and removal of all garbage is, to my way of thinking, the only sanitary way of doing the job."

Mrs. Charles J. Shain, a member of the Community House Administrative Board: "When I was learned that Miss Mary Martin, hostess at the Community House last season, would not return this year, the administrative board entertained fears that a new hostess might be a very difficult person to engage. However, there was little cause for worry as the board has already received applications from more than twenty college women and it has now become a problem to decide between the applicants. We are promised now that we will be able to have the house open for activities by August 10 and we would like to have our hostess by that time."

R. Eugene Griggs of Willetts street: "I cannot understand why the village officials removed the benches from in front of the village library building on Woodward ave. certainly they must know that these benches are used by a considerable number of the town, and also school women with children who are waiting for street cars. They ought to be replaced at once. The women of the town go to their sewing circles but the men have no place to go, so why not do as other towns do and allow public benches where men may sit down when he is up town. They put the benches down in the parks for the kids to use but forget the old taxpayers."

Clark Green, local motorcycle policeman: "In regard to a little interview from one of our local citizens published last week in the Eccentric. He complains about the cops hiding in alleys and sidestreets. I wish to state that if any officer can apprehend a violator by riding in the middle of the street nowadays, with all the mirrors and reflectors that the people put on their cars is more than I can do, and I have ridden for five years; must be that this fellow wants to know where the cops are so that he can do his speeding in the other end of town. We are only trying to make the streets of Birmingham safe for his children, as well as other children, but there are some dumb bells out there are persistent drivers who, just as mentioned above, they watch for the cops and then, as like the wind."

Church and Sunday School

St. James Episcopal Church.

Eighth Sunday after Trinity. 8:00 A. M. Holy Communion. 10:30 A. M. Morning Prayer.

The Baptist Church.

Located at the corner of Bates and Willetts streets will hold their regular morning worship next Sunday at 10 o'clock. The sermon will be given by Rev. Warren Jackson, one of our own, who has given his life to the Ministry and is now a student at Rochester Theological Seminary. He is also Pastor of the church at South Lima, near Rochester. He will speak on "The Lord's Prayer." The Bible school follows at 11 o'clock. Excellent classes for all. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the congregation will join in the services at the Methodist church.

First Presbyterian Church.

The Bible School holds its session at 10:00 o'clock Sunday morning. The attendance is keeping up very well for these summer days. Be sure and have the children present on time. Let the parents meet them at the close and take them into the church service. The church service begins at 10:45 and generally closes at noon. The arrangement is very convenient for housekeepers during the warm weather. This Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. W. C. McKnight, will speak upon "The Place of the Mountain-Top In the Life of Jesus." Miss Baldwin will be the soloist at this service. You will enjoy her singing. Visitors and strangers cordially welcomed. The Evening Union Meeting will be held in the Methodist church at 7:30. Mr. McKnight will be the speaker.

Methodist Church.

10:00 A. M. Class Meeting. C. B. Chamberlin, leader. 10:30 Morning worship. Theme, "The Touchstone of Character." 12 M. Sabbath School. Great lessons these Sundays. Do not miss them. 7:30 P. M. Evening Services. The Union services will be in the Methodist church for the next three evenings.

Monday evening a special meeting of the Official Board. This meeting is important as it is the last one of the quarter which closes Sept. 1st. The meeting of the Berean Class is postponed until Aug. 20. Wednesday evening we come together to praise and pray. Come and bring good cheer with you. Thursday, Aug. 14, the Women's Home Missionary Society will entertain the ladies of the Woman's Foreign Missionary and the Ladies' Aid Society at the Gun Club on S. Adams avenue. Pot luck lunch will be served at noon. Meet at the church at 10:00. This has always been an unusually happy occasion.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Services at Church Building, Woodward ave. one mile south of the D. U. R. waiting room.

Sunday, 11 a. m. Sunday school, same hour.

Wednesday evenings, 8 o'clock. All are invited.
