Starting next Sunday, Feb. 24th, the Baldwin Theatre, Royal Oak, programs for the week comprise several of the season's biggest and best pictures, all of which have been shown in Detroit, in the principal houses.

On Sunday the main film attraction will be "Shifting Sands," a melodrama and love story of the Arabian desert. A well-known cast of screen artists are in the cast and this feature, together with a well-balanced Vaudeville bill will round out the day's amusement. The attention of the patrons of the theatre is called to the four fully equipped super-performances each and every Sunday. These shows are scheduled to start at 2:30-4:45-6:45 and 9:00 p.m. Patrons are asked to come as early as possible so as to avoid the big crowds at night.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 25, 26 and 27, a film version of the well-known story "Rugger of Red Gap" will be the principal screen feature.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday next pick the Paramount production "To the Ladies" which will be offered the public in conjunction with an extraordinary program of 5 high-class Vaudeville acts and the Pathe News.

Tonight and tomorrow marks the final showing of "The Spider and the Rose" and a big bill of standard acts.

Pola Negri in "The Spanish Dancer" and Buster Keaton in another of his full length comedy features, "Our Hospitality," are announced as coming attractions.

At the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak

To complete this week's bill, Roy Stewart will be presented in "The Love Brand" at the Royal Theatre, Royal Oak, with a special comedy tomorrow. On the stage the management has secured Pete McCurdy's Big Revue.

"The Call of the Wild," Jack London's classic of literature that has been the pattern of most successful outdoor authors, will be shown Sunday and Monday, Feb. 24 and 25. It introduces a film declared to be the most talented dog actor to ever appear before a camera. A cast of the nation's most successful outdoor authors, will be shown Sunday and Monday, Feb. 24 and 25. Thursday and Friday Tom Mix's latest starring picture, "Eyes of the Forest," will be the feature attraction. It is a romantic story of that picturesque body of daring men, the Fugate Air Patrol, of whom little is ever heard. Outside of the fact that it shows Mix in an entirely new role—an army aviator—this picture has a significance of portraying in fiction the actual colorful, thrilling lives of the rangers.

"The Fool" to Show Third Week at Garrick Theatre.

The splendid reception that Detroit has accorded Channing Pollock's drama "The Fool" has resulted in arrangements being effected to hold this play at the Garrick theatre for a third week. Although two other dramas in recent years have played Detroit for three consecutive weeks neither of them have created as much discussion as "The Fool." Both were also much lighter forms of entertainment.

Primarily the success of "The Fool" is because it is a great play, a wholesome play that affords entertainment to everyone. Secondly, the manner in which "The Fool" has been endorsed by the clergy and has been brought to the attention of material and business organizations has an important bearing on bringing to the Garrick Theatre a class of people who but seldom visit a playhouse.

Still another factor is that those who have seen "The Fool" have urged their friends not to miss this play which the Detroit critics have acclaimed as the best acted drama ever presented on a Detroit stage. Charles Waldron, who plays the leading role of Gilchrist always has been a favorite in Detroit, and is remembered for his appearances in the Bonstelle Stock and with other companies. His work in "The Fool" puts him on a par with our best dramatists of the dramatic art.

During the past two weeks the Garrick has been crowded every evening and also at the Wednesday

OPENS NEW RESTAURANT.

Following twelve years spent in the restaurant business in Detroit, Mrs. Augusta Ambuhl has leased a building at the extreme south end of Eco City on Woodward avenue as a location for a new restaurant. Arrangements have been under way for the new enterprise for several weeks, having a formal opening last week. The place will be called the Michigan Tourists Inn and is so situated on Woodward avenue as to be able to attract the large number of tourists passing out Woodward avenue.

Miss Georgia Erb of Argus avenue was hostess of a Valentine party last Thursday for 14 little friends and two of her teachers, Miss Howe and Miss Graham. Music and singing were featured in the celebration and the lunch and just before the party broke up, everyone bowed his head.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kitchen of Frank street last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whaner of Wayne.

Your Question AND ITS ANSWER

QUESTION—"In acute diseases, such as fever, cold, inflammations, etc., can you always locate nerve pressure as the cause of the disease?"

ANSWER—"Yes, and much more readily than is often realized. And desired results are often quickly realized. The human body is a living mechanical nerve machine, liable to become injured by accidents, shocks, jolts, falls and twists, which may displace some vertebrae in the spine. In all acute ailments, the displaced vertebrae has existed but a short time and degeneration of tissue and depletion of nerve strength has not taken effect, therefore, the causative condition requires less adjusting to correct than in the chronic ailments. The longer we practice Chiropractic the more convinced we become that if we could get all the acute, bed-ridden cases, there would be no chronics to need our aid."

Consultation and analysis is always free.

Window Lighting and Better Business

One of the greatest chain-store companies, noted for their well-designed, brightly lighted show windows declare:

"We value our show windows for advertising purposes at millions of dollars a year in sales. Without proper lighting our windows would be worth only a fraction of their present value."

Yet many show windows are not only a source of sales, but actually discourage customers from entering the store.

The cost of good window lighting is only a trifle. The thing is to know how to do it. This we will tell you how to accomplish, without charge, Ask us to call.
